Close vote elects Moore president of ACHS Board

by GLORIA DAVIS

Veteran Antioch High School Board of Education member Glenn Moore has been elected, in close board vote, to take over the board presidency vacated by Robert Lindblad who spent over 20 years on the board.

Lindblad ran unsuccessfully in the Nov. 3 election for a seat on the Regional Board of School Trustees for the Lake County Educational Service Region.

Lindblad, one of the three write in candidates for the regional board, lost to Warren Twp, resident Doris Morby, who was also a write-in candidate.

The vote for the head of ACHS's Board was 4-3, with Moore edging Julie Portalski by one vote.

Board member Tom Fisher was elected vice president in a unanimous 7-0 vote and Charles Forester was elected board secretary by the same vote that put Moore into the presidency.

Fisher and newcomer Laurel Dahl cast their votes for the controversial Portalski who said "They voted for me because they thought I was better qualified for the position."

Veteran board members, Frank Walsh, Jr., Charles Forester and newcomer Jan Ranney cast their votes for Moore.

Coroner set to speak to Antioch GOP

The Antioch Twp. Republican Club will have its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 18 at 7:30 p.m. at the Antioch Twp. Hall, Rte. 173, Antioch.

The program will be an informative, educational slide presentation and talk by Barbara Richardson, Lake County coroner on what is going on in the coroner's office and what her job entails.

This program is aimed at better educating the public as to what this elected official does in her job.

The meeting is open to everyone and dessert and coffee will be served.

Moore said that the fact that a unanimous vote was cast for Fisher showed that there were not two defined factions on the board.

"I think more interest in the board officers' positions was created because this was the first time in many years the vote for president was cast for anyone but Bob Lindblad," said Moore.

Seventh parade to join with lighting ritual

Glenda Tomaschik, director of Antioch Parks and Recreation, wants the community to come out and participate in the third annual Christmas Parade.

The parade will be held Nov. 27 beginning on Main and Chestnut Sts. and ending at the depot.

The evening will begin with the tree-lighting and proclamation ceremony on the village hall lawn at 6:30 p.m.; and the parade will set off immediately following at 6:45 p.m.

Anyone interested in signing up for the parade may call Glenda at (312)395-2160 Monday through Friday.

Shop, dance raise funds

Members of the Antioch Mental Health Assn. voted at their Oct. 26 meeting to give Grove School in Lake Forest $8,000 and Riverside Foundation near Lincolnshire $3,000.

Also, $500 each will be donated to Allendale School in Lake Villa, Dist. 34's special education needs in Antioch, Lake County Crisis Center for Prevention and Treatment of Domestic Violence and the Society of Human Development in Zion.

DUI crash leaves 1 dead, 2 injured

One Antioch woman was killed, another remains in serious condition at St. Therese Medical Center in Waukegan. An Antioch truck driver received minor injuries, while Jeffery Ferrigan, 27, Ingleside, who has been charged with the three vehicle accident, remains in good condition at Victory Memorial Hospital, Waukegan.

Betty Spencer, 55, Antioch, was killed and her daughter-in-law, Lou Ann Spencer, 31, driver of one of the vehicles, is still in serious condition. Her son, Shane, 3, who was strapped into a child safety seat in the car's rear seat was uninjured.

Ferrigan, who was driving on a license already revoked because of a 1984 drunk driving conviction, has been charged with reckless homicide, driving under the influence of alcohol and driving without a valid driver's license.

According to the police report, just before 4 p.m. on Sunday, Ferrigan's truck struck the rear of another pickup driven by Clifford McGuire, Antioch while traveling east on Grass Lake Rd. near Lake Shore Dr.

McGuire's vehicle was forced off of the road and struck a tree.

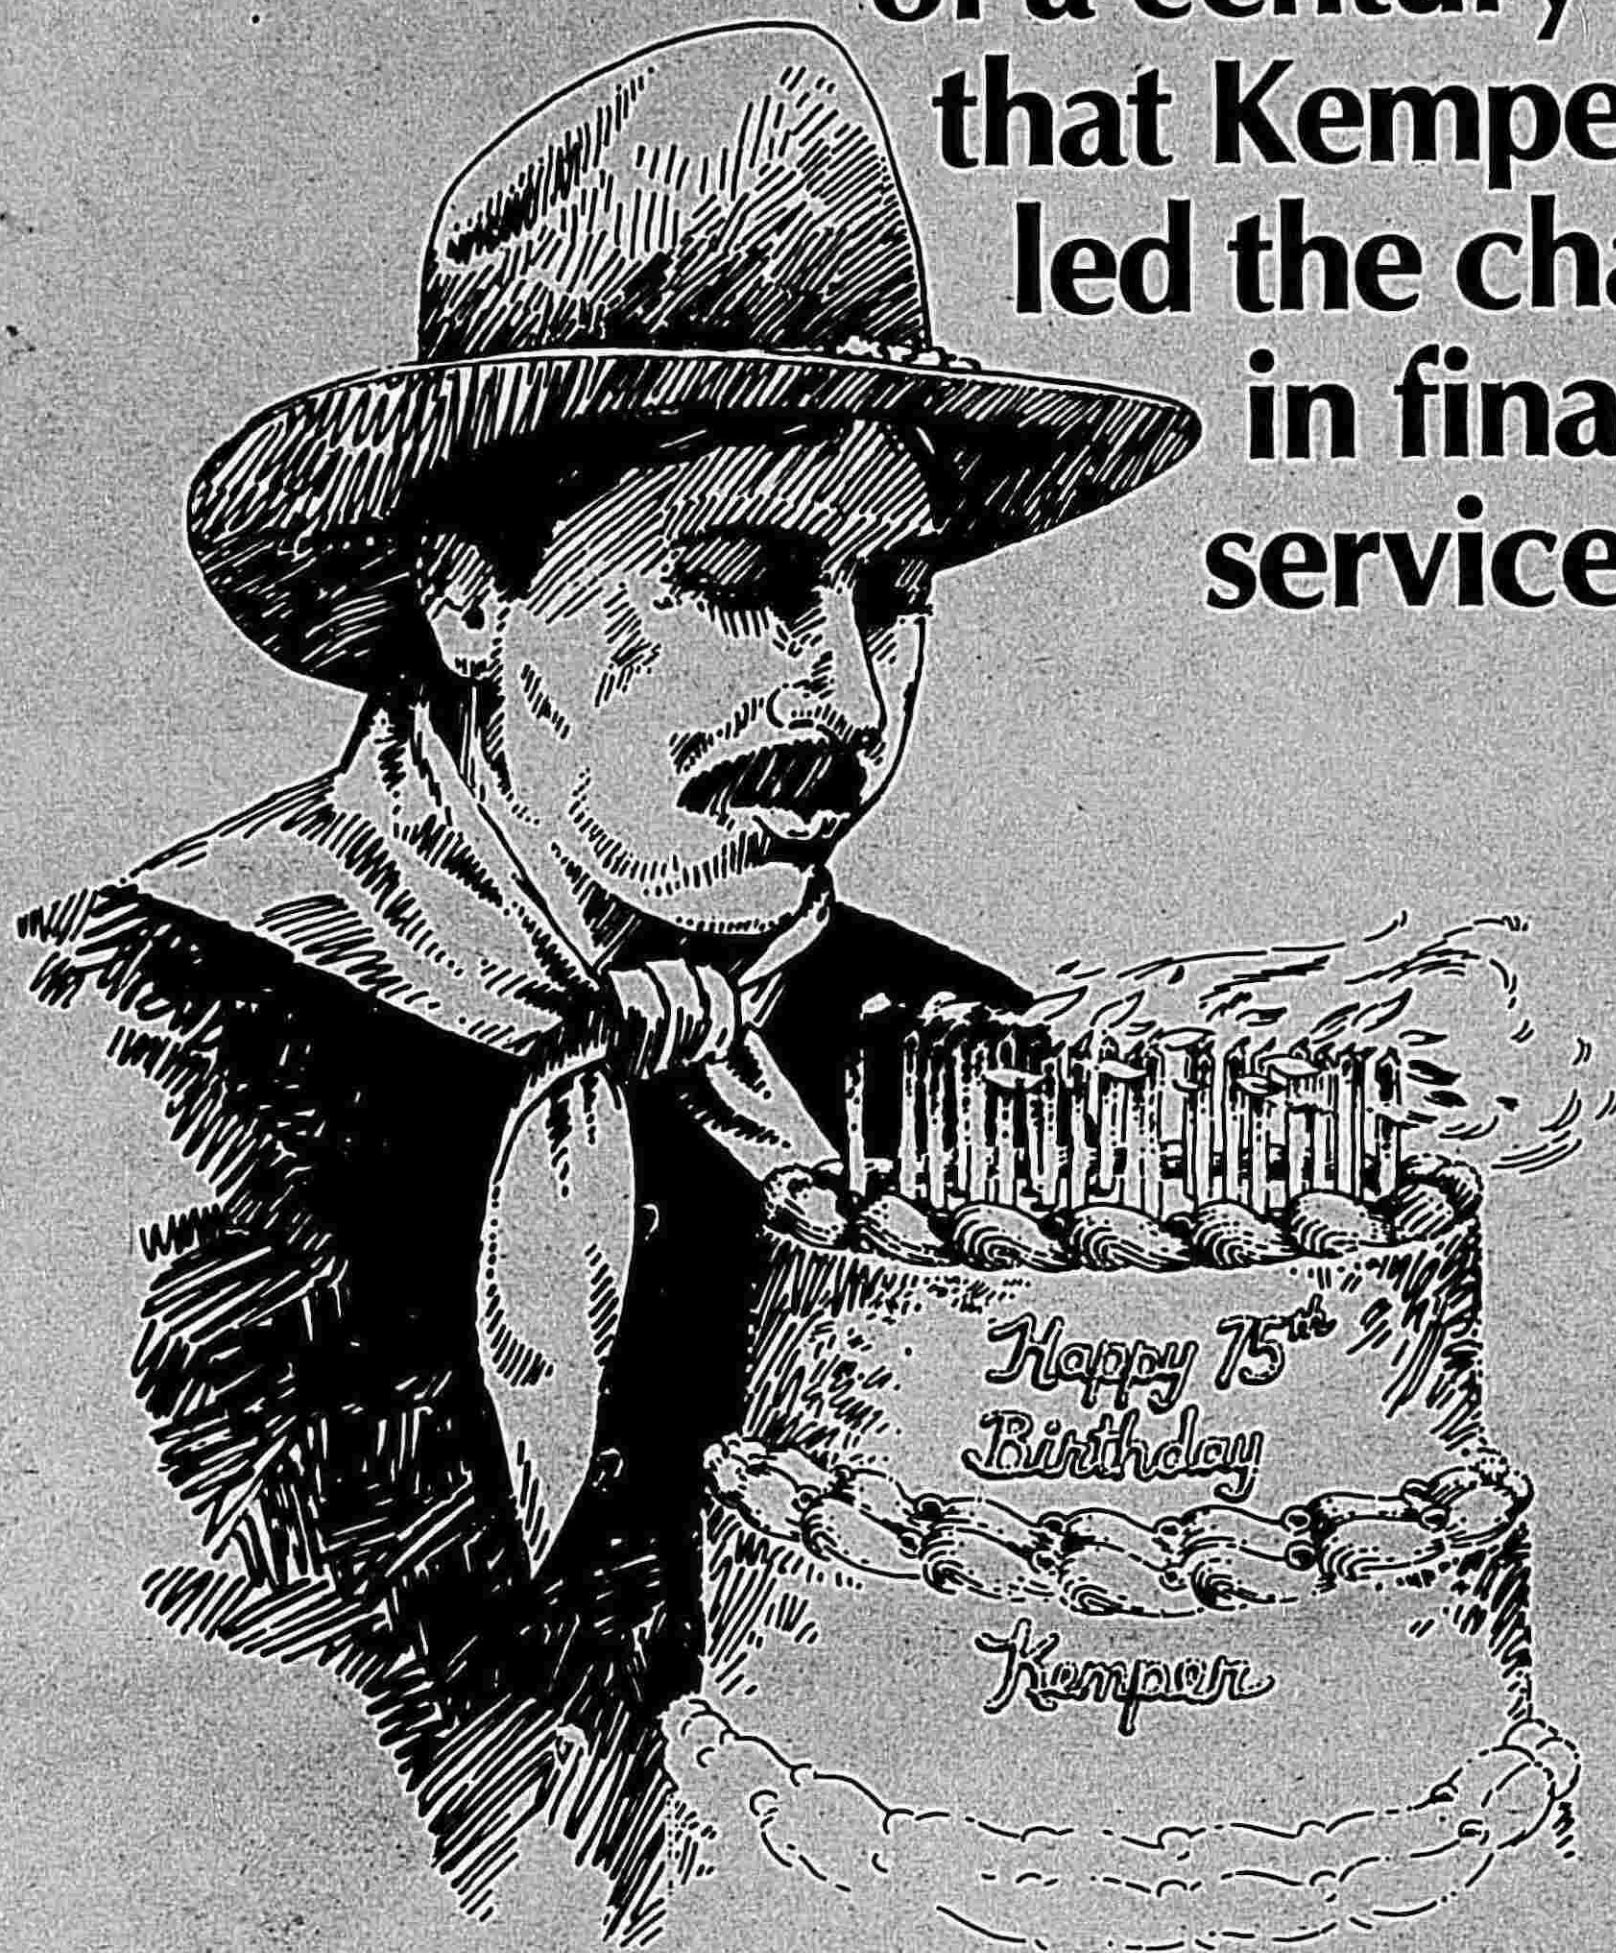

Ferrigan's truck then careened across the center line, striking the Spencer vehicle which was headed west.

marks three quarters of a century that Kemper has led the charge in financial services.

Born in Chicago in 1912 as a mutual workers' compensation insurer, we've grown into a strong and vigorous organization offering a wide spectrum of financial services. We now employ 17,000 people and have billions of dollars in assets.

We are proud of this heritage and growth. We are equally proud of our home here in Lake County and of the contributions we have been able to make to the community. Whether through financial assistance, volunteer work or other support, we have tried to act as we believe a good corporate citizen should among neighbors.

We'd also like to share some of our other accomplishments on this significant anniversary:

Today, our national and regional property-casualty companies' sales top $2.5 billion, ranking Kemper as the 17th largest property-casualty insurer in the country.

Kemper's life insurance companies have more than a half million policyholders with life insurance protection exceeding $41 billion.

With $500 million in reinsurance sales, we are the seventh largest professional reinsurer in the country.

Our network of investment services firms gives us the 11th largest force of registered representatives in the U.S. And Kemper Financial Services is Chicago's largest money manager.

One week last month in our

we taught
6 heart attack patients about the dangers of cholesterol, monitored 3 bypass patients riding exercise bikes
...and put one former mailman back on the right route.

We help people in all walks of life.

Nothing is ever the same after a heart attack. But while most people fear the worst, with the right kind of exercise program . . . and the right kind of lifestyle adjustments . . . many patients return to their jobs and their families even healthier than before.

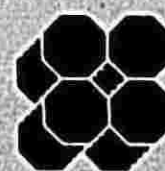

The Cardiac Rehabilitation staff at Northern Illinois Medical Center is specially trained to help these people take the first steps toward resuming full and active lives. We understand not only the medical and physical aspects of rehabilitative care, but also the emotional component so vital to a patient's complete recovery.

Like helping a man who marched through rain, snow, sleet and hail every day for forty years realize the importance of one 10-minute jaunt on the treadmill.

Getting voters involved

County Clerk Linda Hess rightfully expressed dismay over the sparse voter turnout in the non-partisan school election Nov. 3. With elections costing about $200,000 for county-wide voting, Hess estimated the cost of each vote at about $8. This compares to a cost of $1.50 per vote for operation of a general election.

Hess mused glumly that perhaps the system should be reevaluated. Not a bad idea. For starters, we'd like to suggest reconsideration of the former system where each school district conducted its own elections. That system was scrapped in favor of consolidated elections as an economy measure.

Oddly enough, it was Hess' predecessor, then County Clerk Grace Mary Stern, now a state representative, who spearheaded efforts to consolidate elections under the guise of economy. We argued against consolidated elections at the time, not on the basis of economy but for the reason that voter interest would be diluted. When only 13.52 percent of the eligible voters turn out, as was the case Nov. 3, that's a sad commentary on voter interest and a strong argument, we'd say, that voter interest, indeed, has been watered down.

Both issues and individual candidacies are brought into sharper focus when separate elections are held. Hang the cost. That's the price of democracy. We don't agree with Hess at all that further consolidation will be better. Maybe from an economic point of view, but what about voter interest? That's more important as far as we're concerned.

Even with school candidates, bond referenda, a recall proposition and a road question all jumbled on the ballot, much to the confusion of everyone, there still were some pretty good voter turnouts where hot issues were a stake. Well over 1,000 voters turned out in Lake Zurich, for example, to speak out on a controversial bond issue for park land acquisition. In school districts where lively races ensued, voter turnout was well above the county average.

If legislators want to turn back the clock in favor of individual elections, we'll lend our support. We're all for an election system that promotes voter interest and involvement.

Welcome home

Veterans Day this year was special for Vietnam veterans. For the first time since that sad chapter in our history came to a close, Vietnam veterans have been given the respect they deserve.

We are a wiser country than we were 20 years ago. People will continue to argue whether Vietnam was right or wrong. Everybody can agree, though, that there was no dishonor in serving this country. It was not for the men who served to decide how or whether to fight this war. It was their job to do their duty.

It is hard to face gunfire and mortar shells on the front and contempt back home. These were the only veterans who came home not to a parade, but a demonstration.

To all the men and women who served honorably and with dignity in this country's most questionable cause, welcome home and thank you.

Happy birthday Kemper

Kemper Insurance Co., which is observing its 75th birthday Thursday, Nov. 18, is a major Lake County employer and among the growing number of national and international companies that calls Lake County home.

With sales of $2.5 billion, Kemper ranks as the 17th largest property-casualty insurer in the country. The company, since its birth in Chicago before World War I, has grown to encompass a variety of insurance endeavors and has expanded into a number of financial services. The Kemper Calvary as a corporate symbol of strength and courage is a familiar sight on the pages of newspapers and magazines, and our television screens.

The founding Kemper family long has been involved in the social and political fabric of the Chicago area. The Long Grove based company is a shining example of what a good corporate neighbor should be. We salute the company's 17,000 employees, many of whom live in this locality, and wish Kemper a happy birthday.

Reforming compensation

Effective Jan. 1, Illinois will be operating under a revised "almost-too-good-to-be-true" state unemployment insurance system. The reformed system is designed to increase benefits for jobless workers while at the same time reducing the tax rate charged employers.

Benefits for unemployed workers are being raised four percent in each of the next three years. Contributions by employers will be lowered by an aggregate $400 million next year, or an average reduction of seven percent.

The reform, called for by business interests for more than five years, was worked out in a cooperative atmosphere with input from labor, business and both political parties. The general feeling is that the best interests of Illinois were served, not necessarily individual components of the economy.

Gov. James Thompson is hailing the reform as one of the most significant achievements of his 11-year-old administration. The new unemployment insurance regulations received a warm reception from Lake County businessmen attending the Governor's Small Business Roundtable Thursday, Nov. 12 at the College of Lake County.

Leadership on all sides wasn't acting out of an enlightened position. The specter of a recession provided the impetus to "get with it before it's too late." With improvements in the unemployment compensation law in place, the same leaders should turn their attention to workmen's compensation regulations. This system is in need of a reform badly. Much the same criticism can be said of workmen's compensation as unemployment compensation.

Adopt Chain speed limits

Establishing a boating speed limit on the Chain O'Lakes makes a good deal of sense. We support without reservation the proposed limit of 55 mph for days and 25 mph for sunset to dawn.

The suggested limits are reasonable and fair. There is no question that limiting the speed and enforcing the limits will make the Chain O'Lakes a safer place to boat. An estimated 30,000 boats ply the waters of the Chain and the Fox River. That's a mind-boggling number of boats and the reason no one questions the Chain's reputation as one of the nation's busiest boating areas.

The speed limit would take effect for the 1988 season by the Chain O'Lakes-Fox River Water Management Agency and enforced by the respective sheriff's water patrols of Lake and McHenry Counties. The agency has conducted two public hearings on the speed limit, one in each county, and is ready to take action. We can think of no reason why the speed limits should not be enacted.

Towns, schools confuse state in asbestos woe

by BILL SCHROEDER

Bungling in Springfield is complicating the process of correcting some serious asbestos problems existing in both the public and parochial schools serving the Lake Villa area.

Aides in the Illinois Dept. of Health intertwined directives to Dist. 41, Lake Villa Community Consolidated, and Prince of Peace School, and then published notification of action being taken by the department, as required by law, in a newspaper no one ever has heard of in Lake Villa.

Public notice was published in the Lake Zurich Courier, giving rise to wonderment whether the Lake Villa authorities were willingly involved in the corrective process. Both Supt. Peter Polumbi of the public school and Carol Tolson, Prince of Peace administrator, said that they were doing everything possible to cooperate.

When the incorrect and illegal notice was called to the attention of Brian White in the IDH office in Springfield, reporters were informed that department clerks saw no difference between Lake Zurich and Lake Villa.

Aides in the office of Don Anderson, state asbestos program coordinator, also are working to unravel misdirections to Dist. 41 to correct a problem at Prince of Peace School. Now it has been revealed that Dist. 41 has some problems of its own.

If this all sounds confusing, it is. Anderson said he would have to be informed in writing of the snafu. Anderson already has a letter and we'll send him a clipping of this column.

HONORS—Plaudits continue to come the way of State Sen. Jack Schaffer (R-Crystal Lake), whose district includes west Lake County. Schaffer was named 1987 Legislator of the Year by the Illinois Assn. of Rehabilitation Facilities, Inc., for his efforts in securing $20 million additional revenue for the Illinois Dept. of Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities budget in the waning hours of the General Assembly's spring session.

BIG PROJECT—In the works and soon to be revealed is a shopping center development scheduled for Grand Ave. west of Gurnee, described as "huge." The project, being master-minded by a Washington, D.C. realty firm, will be designed to rival the highly successful Factory Outlet Center on I-94 west of Kenosha that has been attracting shoppers from as far away as Chicago and Milwaukee.

EARMARKED—With the trend for business persons to add alphabetical designations behind their names to denote professional status, Ed Pigg, "Mr. Volkswagen" of Waukegan before his retirement two years ago, decided to add an appropriate designation for himself. So it's Edgar Pigg CL now.

With Ed we knew we were walking into a trap, but we ventured forth anyway. What's the CL stand for, Ed? "Why, that's for 'Creative Loafer,'" the jovial Lake Bluff resident replied. Ed is far from loafing. After completing a year as Rotary district governor, he took on an assignment to raise money for the polio fund. His target is $1.5 million. That's far from a loafing assignment.

TOY SEARCH—Sign of the season: Members of the Marine Corps Reserve are getting ready for the annual Toys for Tots drive. Containers will be delivered to prominent points Nov. 23 and 24. Once again, this newspaper's lobby will be a drop-off point for your unused toys. Over the years, Toys for Tots has become one of the real symbols of Christmas.

HOLIDAY DINNER—Families interested in sharing their Thanksgiving dinner with a sailor from Great Lakes Naval Training Center are invited to contact the Public Affairs Office at (312)688-2201/2430 between 7:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. Participating families are to pick up their Navy guests between 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. on Nov. 26. The sailors must be returned prior to 8 p.m. Families must register by 4 p.m. Nov. 24.

Soil problems make case for veto override

DIST. 5 COUNTY Board Member and open space evangelist Mike Graham paid a visit last Friday and made a convincing argument for overriding the veto of the forest preserve acquisition of Country Estates property in Warren Twp.

Situated along the DesPlaines River, the property is scheduled to be developed with one-acre homesites if not acquired by the forest preserve. A letter from the Lake County Health Dept. dated Sept. 11, 1985, informed developer Tim O'Leary that the department was shocked to see he was planning to go ahead with such development.

The soils are so poor in that project that the health department says there should be no more than one home for every five acres because of the problems that will exist with septic. The soils tend to retain water, rather than draining, causing septic to back up and have to be flushed. The water retention can also cause problems in the winter as the ground freezes, causing cracked foundations.

Graham also noted that the land is within the 50-year flood plain and, being so near the river, it is virtually certain that come the next heavy rain, any homes built there are going to be damaged.

In a letter to forest preserve commissioners, Graham said, "the Warren Twp. site is tailor-made to fit President (Don) Strenger's four-point standard. It adjoins an existing preserve. It is in eminent danger of destruction by development. It is environmentally sensitive in many areas, including soil conditions. (It) will cause, according to health department information, environmental problems."

On this particular site, the case for override is convincing to me.

ANNOUNCEMENTS OF CANDIDACY are starting to come in fast and furious. Andrea Moore and Jim Dolan of Dist. 5 have announced they will run together for reelection. They are expected to be opposed by former County Board member and Warren Twp. Sup. Bob Depke. Rumor has it that Depke will also find a running mate.

I asked Dolan why Moore got top billing on the campaign stationery. "I like the sound of Moore-Dolan," he replied.

There are going to be at least two dogfights for seats on the board. Dist. 5 will be tough because Depke is an experienced, savvy campaigner.

In Dist. 4, challengers Larry Leafblad and Suzi Schmidt impressed many with their statement and performance at the screening held by the Republican Central Committee. They noted that it is time for the party to open its doors to new people. Leafblad made the point that he is a committed Republican. Both Leafblad and Schmidt made it very clear that they will not be a part of any block if elected.

They are beginning to talk about issues and the first they called attention to is that Lake County must make the hard decisions to solve its impending garbage crisis.

Just Politics

By Charles Johnston

Incumbents Jim Fields and Fred Popp are going to have a real battle on their hands.

JIM FIELDS, COUNTY Board Chairman and candidate for reelection in Dist. 4, will have his first fundraiser on Sunday, Nov. 14.

It will be a venison dinner from 5 to 8 p.m. at Sterbenz Little Acres, just off West Loon Lake in Antioch. Tickets are $12.50 each.

Solving solid waste problems is crucial

Probably the best and highest purpose of my guest column would be for me to try to convince you that it is worth your time and effort to learn about the issues of solid waste disposal: garbage.

First some recent findings. Lake County throws out between 1,300 and 1,400 tons of garbage each day. Most of the garbage is disposed of in one of two landfills: the ARF Landfill south of Grayslake and the BFI Landfill west of alternatives that are less controversial. Recycling is the most frequently mentioned alternative to landfills and incinerators. Currently, about two to three percent of the county's residential and commercial garbage is recycled. Proponents of recycling suggest that that figure can increase to 40 percent.

Currently, about two to three percent of the county's residential and commercial garbage is recycled. Proponents of recycling suggest that that figure can increase to 40 percent. Currently about 30 tons of waste are recycled per day within the county. To meet the 40 percent goal, 520 tons would have to be recycled per day. The collection, processing and marketing of this volume of material poses tremendous obstacles that may be impossible to overcome, even over a 20-year period. Even with 40 percent recycling, there remains 780 tons of waste to be landfilled or incinerated per day.

A final option, and one that I support, is the approach being taken by the Lake County Joint Action Solid Waste Planning Agency. With the support of a $350,000 grant from the IEPA and member contributions, the Agency is developing a comprehensive, integrated solid waste management plan for its members. The agency is an independent governmental entity formed in September, 1985. Membership in the agency consists of 26 municipal members and Lake County, representing a total population of over 400,000.

The key to the success of the agency's plan is the word "integrated." The agency has retained experts to help it evaluate the costs and benefits of recycling, composting, incineration and landfilling. Indeed, there are pros and cons to each technology. The agency's task is to identify the mix of technologies most appropriate to meet the short and long term needs of its members. Plan completion is scheduled for the end of next year.

A critical element of this approach will be the involvement of the public in the planning process. It will be important for the public to supply reasoned support for the difficult decisions that the agency's members must make over the coming months. It is very easy to attend a public meeting and criticize what has been done. It is more difficult to stand up and openly support the process and the conclusions reached by the agency.

I urge everyone to participate in the planning process now. Review the options available to Lake County. I encourage everyone to attend agency meetings and share with the board members their thoughts on this very important and timely subject.

(Editor's note: Verna Clayton is the Mayor of the Village of Buffalo Grove. She is also the chairman of the Lake County Joint Action Solid Waste Agency.)

Guest Columnist

By Verna Clayton

Winthrop Harbor. A report released by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency last month indicates that 55 percent of all of the waste disposed of in landfills within Lake County comes from outside of the county.

The report also states that there is between three and five years remaining disposal capacity within the county. This is equal to the time it takes to plan, site, design and build a new landfill. And it is less than the five to seven years needed to plan, site, design and build a waste to energy facility.

These figures indicate that Lake County's options may be limited and the time available for the leisurely consideration of various approaches to the problem is running out.

What are the options available for Lake County and how do they affect you, a resident of Lake County? The first option is no decision; approval of no new facility sites and no solid waste plans adopted or implemented. Under this option, the average monthly residential disposal bill may increase by 50 percent over the next five years. With continued indecision, cost to the homeowner may easily rise another 100 percent or more. Small haulers will go out of business and only a very few large hauling firms will be left, with a near monopoly over the collection of garbage within the county.

A second option is the approval of a new privately initiated siting application within the county. Waste Management and ARF both submitted siting applications to the County Board last year and, after lengthy and very costly public hearings, both applications were denied. The board seems reluctant to let private enterprise have primary control over the operation and ownership of new waste disposal facilities within the county.

A third option involves the search for

At Issue

In March of 1988, many Lake County voters will be asked to approve a preliminary bond issue of $4.5 million to bring Lake Michigan water into central and western Lake County. Paul Neal, mayor of Libertyville and chairman of the Central Lake County Water Agency, is in favor of the project. Mike Graham, Libertyville Twp. Supervisor and Dist. 5 County Board member opposes it.

PRO:

By Paul Neal

The Central Lake County Joint Action Water Agency is committed to providing a safe and reliable source of water to our residents.

Providing a long-term source of water to residents of Lake County has been under study by agency members since 1981, and by several predecessor groups of municipal leaders since the 1940s.

The decision to proceed with construction of a new water supply system was made after extensive research, and was a unanimous decision that reflects the endorsement of the governing bodies of each of the municipalities participating in the Water Agency. It was not made solely by the delegates to the Water Agency, but by the entire Village or County Board represented by each member.

The primary motive was to insure that the quality of life we all now enjoy will be maintained for ourselves and for future generations. The increasing problems with radium and other contaminants in ground water supplies cannot be ignored. We have one of the world's best sources of fresh water near us.

A referendum will be held in March, 1988 to determine the method of funding the new water supply system. Our financial consultants have recommended that the most cost-effective method of funding is through a combination of general revenue bonds and general obligation bonds, the method the Water Agency and its member communities will promote to taxpayers. A program of public information will be presented before the referendum is held.

We would be derelict in our duties as municipal officials if we did not provide for the future well-being of all residents of our communities by insuring a reliable, clean and plentiful source of water.

Water Agency; Yes or no?

CON:

By Mike Graham

Mention Lake Michigan water and many elected office holders become mesmerized as if it has some magic, mystical qualities.

Many labor under the illusion that it is as pure as distilled water right out of the lake. Lake Michigan water needs extensive treatment before it is safe to drink. Every municipal sewer plant that rings the lake in Michigan and Wisconsin discharges their sewage directly into the lake. Both Waukegan and Chicago dump raw sewage during heavy rains.

Another illusion being promoted by the Water District Board is that we have a water crisis, in an effort to promote its $70-$100 million water line.

In Lake County we have an average annual rainfall of 32.8 inches and an average annual snowfall of 38.3 inches. A million gallons of water falls on every acre of land in Lake County every year. Lake County never has had and never will have a water crisis, even with poor management and wasteful practices.

Fear of radium pollution is another tool used by trustees of the water district. Excessive radium counts can be answered simply by shallow well dilution. It will cost some money, but certainly not a proportionate share of $70-$100 million.

If the above is true, why the great effort to obtain lake water? The answer is as simple as it is obvious. It is just easier for elected public officials to build a water line, albeit more costly, than to produce an innovative land use-water use plan for central Lake County.

Lake County United Ways unite, expand

The United Way of Lake County and the United Way of Central Lake County have announced a merger. The expanded organization will be known as the United Way of Lake County.

Presiding over the merger arrangements were Roy G. Kerr, chairman of the board of directors for the United Way of Lake County and George M. Sachs, president of the board of directors for the United Way of Central Lake County. Both of the volunteer chiefs indicated that the merger had occurred to maximize the delivery of needed social services to all Lake County residents.

Kerr, chairman of the board for the United Way of Lake County, said that negotiations between the two United Ways had been on-going for a number of years, and that the merger was a culmination of these negotiations.

Sachs said the merger agreement called for the incorporation of the United Way of Central Lake County Volunteers into the Board structure of the United Way of Lake County and also mandated a funding guarantee for the social service agencies affected by the merger.

Kerr and Sachs agreed that the merger would ultimately lead to enhanced fund raising and more efficient fund distribution.

Kerr will serve as head of the expanded organization. He is operations manager for corporate purchasing at Abbott Laboratories.

Sachs is an attorney in private practice in Vernon Hills.

Churchill supports student exchange

State Rep. Robert Churchill (R-Antioch) said the merits of a student exchange program in which he is participating should encourage constituents and other legislators to host young people from all over the globe.

Churchill has cooperated in hosting Anthony Cooper, 19, a native of Australia and Raphael Rossi, 18, a native of Brazil. The students became involved with a program sponsored through the Antioch Rotary Club and are attending Antioch

High School as seniors.

Since their arrive in the United States 10 months ago, Cooper and Rossi have been able to experience American culture and have received a hands-on view of government in action, Churchill said.

"I think that Raphael and Tony can both tell you that staying in the United States has been a fulfilling time. What they have learned, especially at their age, will be of great benefit to them in the future," Churchill said. "And, explaining our government workings and answering their questions made me realize that the system many take for granted is a marvel to those who don't practice it and a source for greater insight."

"All the others who have come to know our foreign guests have benefited immeasurably," Churchill said.

The Australian and Brazilian will return to their respective homelands in January.

Heart patient gets new lease on life

by KRISTI HAYS

On July 27, Michael Sopko, 66, of Long Lake was given his last rites at Northwestern Memorial Hospital, where he lay dying. His heart was damaged beyond repair.

When the summer began, he was running a pest control business with his son-in-law. An active man, he and two brothers opened up supermarkets in 1948. When the first heart attack came, it seemed certain his active days were

Michael Sopko finished.

Miraculously, he hung on until Oct. 16, when he received a new heart; that of a young man who died in an accident. Today, he is up and walking around the hospital.

"We feel there has to be a purpose for us to go through this," said Sopko's daughter, Mickey Gordon, who, along with her mother, Rosemarie and sister, Kim, took three months off work to be by her father's side.

"My father was at the edge of death. People need to know about the donor program, both receiving and giving," she said.

Sopko suffered a massive heart attack—his first—on July 24, 1987. He was flown to Northwestern Memorial Hospital in Chicago, where he was given less than a 5 percent chance to live.

"His heart was paper thin," said Gordon. "He had to be cardioverted (electrically shocked) over 200 times."

The day after he was given his last rites, Sopko responded to medication. "The staff was very realistic (about his condition) but never gave up hope," says Gordon. Her father couldn't have bypass surgery because his heart was so damaged.

Sopko was given an experimental drug, anederon, to control an electrical problem that caused his heart to beat up to 300 times a minute and then stop. By the end of August, his condition had improved; however, in September he came down with pneumonia.

"My father had to be shocked seven to eight times a day. At one point, he was shocked 70 times within 14 hours," said Gordon.

Gordon stresses that her family did not realize a heart transplant was an option. "Fortunately, Northwestern did," she said. They were alerted that their father could be tested to see if he could be a transplant recipient.

He was transferred to Loyola University Medical Center for tests. "God gave us one week of being stable," said Gordon of her father's condition during testing.

On Sept. 30 he was put on the transplant list and he received a heart on Oct. 16 at 4:30 a.m.

Gordon thinks the amount of time her father waited for a heart shows there are not enough donors.

"It's such a miracle that a new heart, liver or lung can save a life," Gordon said. "We are very grateful to the donor and his family."

According to Linda Bartlett, R.M.N., heart procurement coordinator at Loyola University Medical Center, there is a misconception about donating organs.

"People think if they're at a hospital and doctors see their donor card, the hospital will do nothing to help them. That is absolutely not true," she said.

Bartlett recommends that potential donors call the Regional Organ Bank of Chicago, (312)431-ROBI to receive a brochure about donating.

"Before people sign a card, they should read the questions and answers about donating," she said. Donors can receive a donor card or sign the back of their drivers license. A witness must also sign. Bartlett recommends that the witness be a family member.

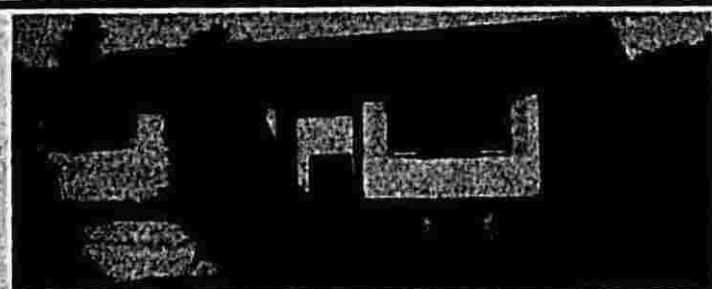

"Even if they sign a donor card, the next of kin has rights to disagree (about donating)," she said. She stresses that family members should know about plans to donate so they are aware at the time of death.

Families are able to donate their kin's body without a donor card under the Uniform Anatomical Gift Act, which allows next of kin to sign consent for donation.

"The public also needs to know what can be donated," said Bartlett. Hearts, heart/lungs, kidneys, livers, pancreas and small bowels can be donated; in addition, corneas, bone and skin can be used.

Gordon recommends to anyone in a situation like her family's to check into the transplant program. While most hospitals don't have the facilities, they can give information about hospitals that do.

"Unfortunately, there are not enough donors," Gordon said. "But never give up hope."

Utility companies are safe investment

by GARY S. MEYERS

Electric utility stocks have long been considered safe, conservative investments—and that notion is still valid, as shown dramatically during the recent stock market crash.

While the Standard & Poor's 500 tumbled 29 percent in the first four weeks of October, the value of electric utility stocks dropped only five percent.

The stability of electric utility stocks can provide a defensive position for investors still staggering from the market's sudden collapse.

"People use electricity in good times and bad times," said Fulton Holmes, a utilities analyst for Thompson McKinnon Securities, Inc. in New York. So companies that produce electricity are not very susceptible to the vagaries of the economy.

Electric utility stocks have generally low profit-to-earnings ratios and stable share prices; also, they usually pay strong dividends. According to Holmes, the average yield for these companies in October was 7.6 percent.

Before the crash, utility stocks were not as attractive as Treasury bonds because interest rates had risen and treasury bonds were yielding more than 10 percent. But afterward, Treasury yields plummeted and lower electric utility share prices pushed the yields on those stocks higher. Today, the yields on both are about nine percent.

Electric utility stocks have the additional benefit of possible price appreciation, making the potential return on equity higher than for Treasury bonds.

"As recently as three weeks ago, we felt that bonds were more attractive on both a yield and a total-return basis than utility common stocks," said Barry Abramson, a utilities analyst for Prudential Bache in New York. "For conservative income-oriented investors today, the utility stocks appear more attractive."

The Meyers Report already holds one electric utility stock in its hypothetical Stock Tips portfolio. We purchased 100 shares of Eastern Utility Associates on Aug. 13 for $30.63 per share. The yield then was 7.5 percent. Today, the stock costs $27 per share. At that price, the yield is 8.5 percent.

There are many high-quality electric utility stocks to choose from, analysts say. William Haugan of E.F. Hutton in New York recommends such low-risk stocks as Dominion Resources, Consolidated Edison and Potomac Electric Power Co. Holmes listed Southern Co., Duke Power and Southern California Edison as top picks.

"Some stocks moved three to 10 points in under an hour, while trade confirmations often took several hours—thus sometimes destroying the economic reasons for doing the trade in the first place," said Mark Casolo, a stock analyst with Tucker, Anthony & R.L. Day in Schenectady, N.Y.

—Illiquid stocks. Some stocks, most notably over-the-counter issues, couldn't be bought or sold because the market makers were swamped. Market makers are the over-the-counter dealers who act as intermediaries in setting prices for specific stock issues.

"Many market makers couldn't be reached by phone, thereby preventing trades in some stocks," said Casolo.

—Unreasonable margin calls. Clients of many firms were called to do the impossible.

I found out personally, when a mailgram arrived demanding $300 for a margin call. The money had to be delivered to my broker in New York in 25 minutes; I was in Chicago. The firm was going to sell some of my stock at a rock bottom price to cover my loan if I didn't pay. Fortunately, my good relationship with the broker prevailed and they accepted overnight delivery.

Other investors weren't so lucky. They had only five or 10 minutes to come up with thousands of dollars. That's not enough time to even call your banker—especially at lunch hour.

But those who received notice of margin calls were luckier than some others. Many investors who actually had the cash to cover their margin calls later discovered that their stocks had been sold by brokerage firms without any notification.

Many investors who were too heavily margined were wiped out. When the crash came, they didn't have the cash to maintain the required equity in their accounts.

Investors who borrow to buy stock have few means of recourse when the margin calls come, said the national sales manager of a large New York brokerage. When a brokerage firm loans you money to buy stock, legally it can take any action it wants to preserve its loan.

Arbitration of such problems is available from the National Assn. of Securities Dealers or the New York Stock Exchange, but rulings have confirmed the virtually unlimited rights of brokers in margin questions.

Remember: Forces that operate within the stock market are powerful. Make sure that you have the staying power to ride out the storms. And never invest more than you can afford to lose.

Coldwell predicts shrinking vacancies

A healthy suburban office market, with many submarkets poised to set records in absorption, is shown by third-quarter vacancy figures compiled by Coldwell Banker Commercial Real Estate Services.

Overall vacancy for Chicago's suburbs fell by 0.54 percent, down from a second quarter 22.84 percent to a present 22.3 percent. Coldwell Banker office leasing representatives in all areas surveyed—Northern Suburban, Oak Brook, O'Hare and Schaumburg—predicted that vacancies will continue to shrink through the fourth quarter and into 1988.

The northern suburbs are enjoying a strong office market, with the lowest vacancy rates in the suburbs and near-record absorption, according to Hank Cox of Coldwell Banker's Chicago North office. The northern suburbs have absorbed more than 92,000 square feet through the third quarter, nearing the 1.2 million square feet absorbed in the market for all of 1986.

A lack of new construction and active leasing are the factors contributing to the drop in vacancy to 18.47 percent, down from the second quarter vacancy of 19.76 percent. Only three new buildings are underway in the market: One Conway Park, Bannockburn Lakes IV and One Overlook Point in Lincolnshire.

Coldwell Banker is exclusive leasing agent for One Conway Park. In addition to this new construction, Sears Consumer Financial Corp. will vacate 300,000 square feet when it moves to Riverwood, its new 600,000-square-foot headquarters building, which was built-to-suit by Homart Development Co.

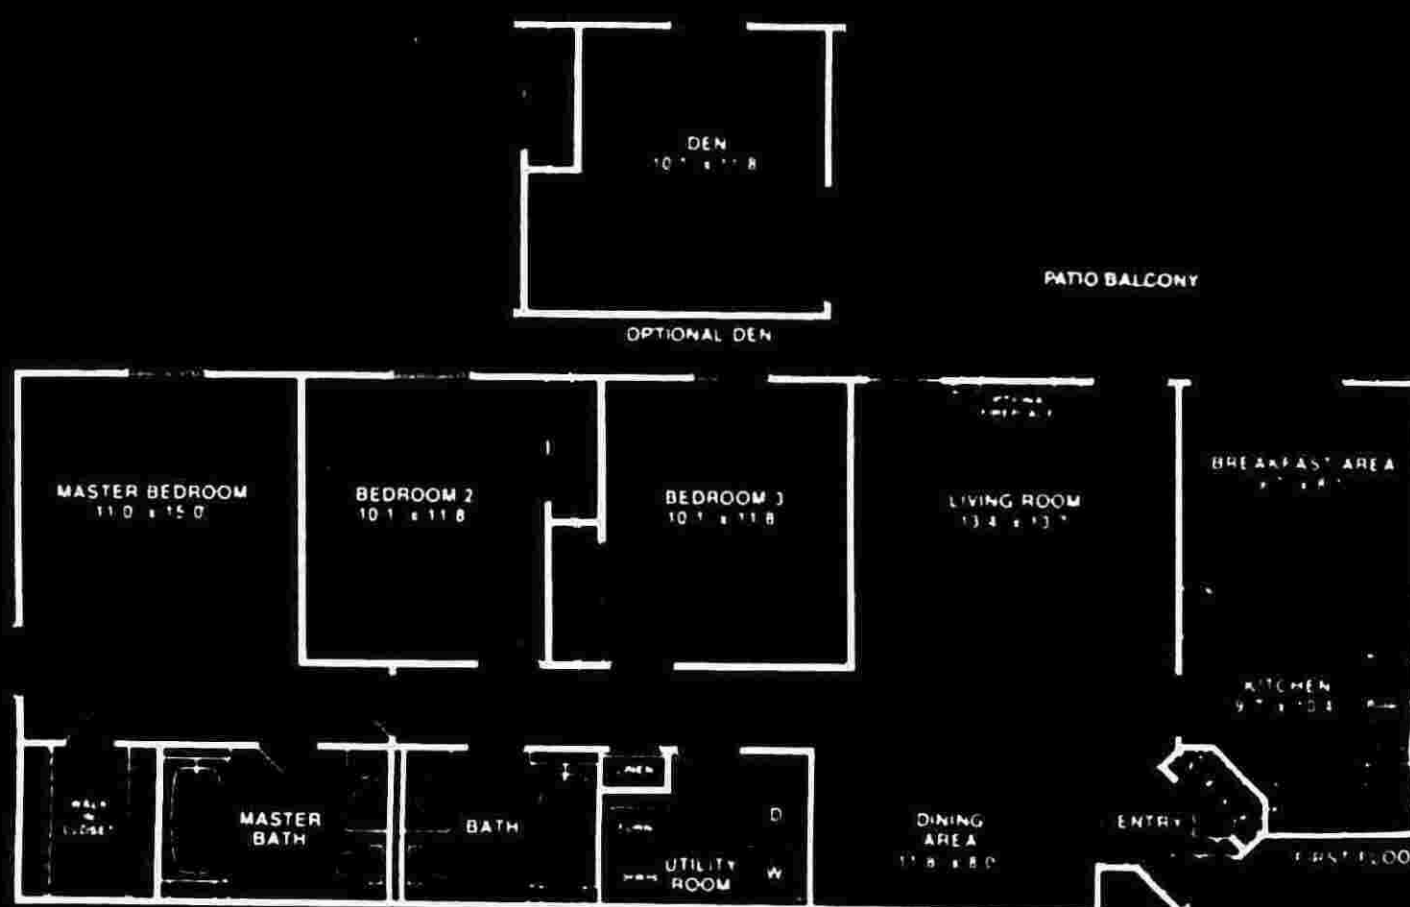

Cox predicts that while these new buildings and the Sears space will add approximately 600,000 square feet to the market, the brisk leasing pace will still allow for a drop in vacancy to 15 to 18 percent in 1988.

Major leases that were signed in the northern suburbs during the second quarter include Nutrasweet's lease of approximately 132,000 square feet at Arbor Lakes and Kraft Inc.'s 102,000-square-foot lease at Parkway North in Deerfield. Cox added that leasing has been brisk at Corporate 500 and Edens Corporate Center, where many accounting firms are taking advantage of concessions to upgrade their north suburban offices.

Cambride sells 38 percent

The popularity of a Lake County address is drawing young singles, professional couples and empty nesters to the new garden homes at Cambridge Country in Mundelein. Developed by Cambridge Homes Inc., this 159 garden home community offers three homestyles. One third of the homes that will be built have already been sold.

"Cambridge County will offer homebuyers a variety of architectural styles and prices to accommodate their budgets and lifestyle needs," said Richard J. Brown, president of Cambridge Homes.

Brown explained that the garden homes are attached single-family homes built on modest homesites in order to provide affordable entry level housing for singles and young couples, as well as for empty-nesters. No more than two homes are built side by side so that each home has a front, back and side yard.

Cambridge County is located with easy access to transportation, schools, shopping, medical services and a variety of recreational opportunities.

The Garden Homes can also be built on homesites as detached single family residences. In such cases the lots would be larger and a two-car garage would be included.

The Gresham is a ranch home with two bedrooms and an optional family room, priced from $90,490. It has vaulted ceilings in the living room, dining area, kitchen and both bedrooms. The optional family room can include a fireplace and skylights. A laundry room, half bath and attached garage are included.

Priced from $93,990, the Grenville is a two-story home with three bedrooms and one and one-half to two and one-half baths. It has an attached garage, living and dining rooms and an optional family room.

A two-story home with a family room, one and one-half to two and one-half baths and two to three bedrooms, the Marlowe is priced from $101,490. It features options for fireplace and skylights and a lofted den.

Cambridge County is on Moidlothian Rd., south of Ill. Hwy. 176 in Mundelein. To visit the models and the Cambridge Country information center, take the Tri-State Tollway (Int. Hwy. 294) north to Ill. Hwy. 176. Exit west on 176 through town to Midlothian Rd., take south one mile to the community entrance. Call (312) 362-9595 for more information.

Chrysler to aid United Way push

Although the final numbers are not in, the United Way of Kenosha County is projecting a goal-achieving campaign total for 1987.

The projection was made Wednesday by General Campaign Chairperson Paul Gergen at the United Way Victory Banquet at Holiday Inn, Kenosha.

The total campaign contribution figure will be available after the Chrysler Corp. employee campaign. The Chrysler employee total will be added to the "Principal Corporations" division.

"We have a final report from all principal corporations except for Chrysler and they all have matched or exceeded last year's contributions," Gergen told the Victory Banquet audience. "Turning to Chrysler, our analysis of the 'fair share' payroll deductions indicates that the Chrysler employees will help us meet our goal. We estimate that we will get the final confirmation figures in about three weeks. I am optimistic that we can continue to rely on the continued generosity of Chrysler employees and we will achieve our goal of $1.3 million."

Bull Valley sells 50 homesites in 50 days

Bull Valley Golf Club in northwest suburban Woodstock has taken deposits on 50 homesites in the first 50 days since the residential trailer opened Sept. 1.

Bull Valley Golf Club's developer, Harry

Vignocchi attributes brisk homesite reservations to the outstanding natural landscape and visible progress on the back nine holes of the championship golf course.

"We've been working seven days a week since spring, grading and contouring fairways, constructing water hazards and finishing natural boulder retaining walls," said Vignocchi. "We'll complete seeding and selective sodding before the snow flies."

Vignocchi predicted that from 9 to 13 holes of the Dick Nugent-designed 18-hole golf course will be ready for play next summer and that lot buyers will be able to begin new home construction by spring.

Home sites at Bull Valley range in size from one-half acre to over one acre and in price from $44,000 to $77,000.

"Buyers may choose their architect and builder, but floor plans and exteriors are subject to architectural review," said Vignocchi. Home site buyers may also choose from custom-style designs by Marlis Development, an Arlington Heights-based developer.

The Bull Valley sales center is located one mile east of Rte. 47 on Country Club Rd. in Woodstock. Interested persons may call (312)255-1339 or (815)338-9644 for an appointment to see staked home sites.

Trident breaks ground for center

Trident Developments has broken ground for a new 135,000 square-foot shopping center at the northwest corner of Hainesville Rd./Rte. 83 and Rollins Rd. in Round Lake Beach.

"This is an excellent location for a new shopping center," said James P. McDermott, president of Trident. "The project will serve the growing communities of Round Lake Beach, Round Lake, Lindenhurst, Lake Villa, Fox Lake, Grayslake and Hainesville."

Named Mallard Creek, the center will be anchored by a 75,900-square-foot Dominick's combination food and drug store. The center also will have an additional 65,000 square feet for other retailers.

McDermott commented that Mallard Creek is a good opportunity for retailers because it draws from an area population of 100,000 people and is across the street from the successful Jewel, K-Mart and Zayre stores.

The architect for Mallard Creek is Jens Jensen of Jensen & Fore.

Leasing agents for the project are Greg Hoard and Tom Zumm of Tanguay Burke Stratton Comprehensive Real Estate Services of Chicago.

Completion of the center is expected in July of 1988.

Trident Developments, Inc. is a developer of retail shopping centers and is based in Itasca.

Legislative inaction may kill Lekotek funds

A program which helps about 50 young Lake County children each year may only go for a half season this year. The program, Lekotek, is service of the Parent/Infant Center and is designed to aid children up to age three who have problems with their development.

Teri Lapping, coordinator of the Lekotek program and public relations liaison for the Parent/Infant Center says it will only take $12,000 to continue the program for a full year and that the state legislature can fund it in the veto session next week.

"Lekotek is a small part of our program, but it is a very special part," she said. "It is a library of special toys that parents of children can check out to continue with their therapy at home."

The Parent/Infant Center helps young children with all types of problems including Down's Syndrome, Spina Bifida, speech and language problems, and other developmental disorders. Over 300 children a year are served by the center's various programs.

Lapping said the Lekotek program has been particularly effective for children who need help but do not need to be with a therapist all the time. Lekotek allows the parent to act as the therapist and gives more time to the child.

She thinks Lekotek and the other programs of the Parent/Infant Center are a good bargain. "Intervention in the early years is effective in helping a child's development and, thus, cost effective," she said, noting that it is far more expensive to wait until a child is in school before catching a problem and correcting it.

She asks that people who are interested in child development write their legislators and ask that they fund Lekotek.

For information about the Parent/Infant Center and its programs, call (312) 816-3010.

Check It Out!

by Gloria Davis

For those into ceramics, the Chicago Center For Ceramic Art presents a celebration of children's art from Chicago Outreach Programs through Dec. 6. Call (312)649-1777 for information.

Don't forget to swing your partner at the perfect autumn event, a Fall Barn Dance, will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 14 at the park district building in downtown Grayslake.

And if you haven't seen it yet, and you love thrillers, find the nearest movie theater that's featuring "Fatal Attraction." It's a goodie!

But if you're too lazy to go out over the weekend, why not stop at the video store and see if "Lethal Weapon" is in. Oh that Mel Gibson!

On stage

The Italian play, "Six Characters in Search of an Author," is an exploration of shifting levels of reality. A family of characters interrupts a play rehearsal, insisting on telling their story. When each family members' version clashes, the audience has to separate reality from illusion. It will be playing at CLC's Theater from Nov. 13 through the 21.

For those who want to tear their kids away from the tv set and movie screen and expose them to the wonders of the live stage, On Stage, at the Pickwick Theater in Park Ridge, will be continuing performances of "Sleeping Beauty" on Nov. 13, 18, 19, 20 and 21. Weekday curtain time is 10:30 a.m. and performances on weekends are at noon. Call (312)988-0532.

Also in the "kiddie" vein, how about a special dramatic treat with "Kidstaff" at Lake Forest's Gorton Community Theater at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 14 when the Puppet Place will be doing "Aladdin's Magic Lamp."

On Thursday, Nov. 18, Rears West at Frigates in Ingleside will be serving laughs galore with comedians Kyle Nape, Bill Kraz and Mark Sandford on stage at 7:30 p.m. The funny trio will then scurry over to the Grand Slam in Waukegan for a Rears South performance at 9 p.m.

"Kukla, Fawn and Ollie or Centra Hear Me Knocking" is the new comedy review presented by Second City ETC at Pipers Alley in Chicago.

Musical notes

If you know anyone with Waukegan Symphony season tickets, who doesn't intend to use them on Nov. 21, they're worth asking for with Gerardo Ribeiro smooching on the violin, Hans Jensen on the cello as the symphony playing a double concert of Brahms and Tchaikovsky.

It will be the strains of the music of Schubert, Liszt and Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue" coming from CLC's Auditorium on Sunday, Nov. 18, at 4 p.m., with virtuoso pianist Carol Henigberg at the keyboard.

For good lounge music, the Helen Pollack Duo will be playing at Zachary's at the Gorton Holiday Inn on the rest of the Thursdays and Saturdays in November.

If you haven't seen the renovated Chicago Theater, maybe Dean Martin and the Goldiggers' appearance through Nov. 18 can draw you to the heart of the city.

Be there!

Have you a home, are you a family member, and are you brought in the answer to those questions is yes, then the Lake County Fairgrounds in Grayslake is the perfect place for you to head this weekend at the Home and Family Living Show. It will be there all weekend.

Second City's revue master satire

Cast and script of Second City's 69th revue, 'Jean Paul Sartre and Ringo' does well known comedy club credit as Tom Wittom reviews 18 sketches that run subject gamut of anti-smoking skit to takeoff on 'Simon Says,' to proper way to view Sunday Bears' game with musical skit, 'Men In Their Underwear.'

Son of Second City pops up

by TOM WITTON

Second City's 69th revue, "Jean Paul Sartre & Ringo," proves again that the midwest's wellspring for satire is in no danger of running dry.

Director Bernard Sahlin's cast—Steve Assad, Kevin Crowley, Aaron Freeman, Rick Hall, Bonnie Hunt and Barbara Wallace—do this venerable Chicago institution proud, lambasting with their special touch politics, religion and contemporary mores such as AIDS in the '80s dating world.

They present 18 sketches in all, and admittedly some are funnier than others. Among personal favorites are takeoffs of a drill instructor riding herd on a group of chaplaincy recruits from various religious persuasions to "River North," a bit in which an artist comes to grips with the real world when his parents cut off his allowance.

The pace is lively and the performers move from scene to scene with polished elan.

And now for some further good news for Second City devotees: Second City Northwest, the company's first permanent suburban home, adjacent to Rupert's in the Continental Towers, 1701 W. Golf Rd., Rolling Meadows, officially opened Nov. 5.

The new spot joins the senior company, the Second City ETC group, also in Old Town, and two touring companies, one of which opens in late December at Pheasant Run in St. Charles.

Regular shows will be Friday and Saturday at 8 and 10:30 p.m., with free improvisations following the last program at 12:30 p.m.

Producer Joyce Sloane has assembled a youthful, enthusiastic cast of six. Their first offering, seen in preview, consists of several Second City classics, from a timely anti-smoking skit to a clever takeoff on "Simon Says," and including a rousing musical number, "Men in Their Underwear," about the proper way to view a Sunday afternoon Bears game.

Even in reprise, the sketches retain their sparkle and sprightliness. The cast, however, needs time to work out some of the stiffness from its improvisational routine.

Overall, the new theater, a carbon copy of its famous parent, should prove a welcome addition to the local comedy scene.

Plan gallery paper show

A handmade paper show entitled "Collaborations: The Energy of Shared Art Experience" will be on exhibit in Barat College's Reicher Gallery Nov. 13 through Dec. 12.

The Reicher Gallery, located at Sheridan and Westleigh Rds., Lake Forest, is open Monday through Saturday from noon to 4 p.m. with the exception of Nov. 24-29, Thanksgiving vacation.

Sponsored by the Paper Press, a Chicago gallery founded to provide working and instructional space for artists interested in experimenting with handmade paper, "Collaborations" focuses on the work of 13 artists selected to experiment with hand-formed paper as a new medium of expression.

The Reicher Gallery show is free and open to the public. The public is also invited to the exhibit's opening reception on Thursday, Nov. 12 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. For more information, all Reicher Gallery director Sharon Wells Booko, (312)234-3000.

Showing sculpture

Michael Croydon, professor of art at Lake Forest College will show his drawings and sculpture at College of Lake County's Community Gallery of Art from Nov. 20 to Dec. 20.

Multi-talented Siegel to appear at Opera House

The Woodstock Opera House will present Corky Siegel in solo appearances on Dec. 4 at 8 p.m. and Dec. 5 at 2 and 8 p.m.

Siegel is known as a master of piano and harmonica, and a superior entertainer as well as a composer of his own songs. Siegel's spellbinding nature and innovative synergy of vocals, piano and electrifying harmonica is balanced by his delightfully crazy humorous lyrics and precise timing called "that of a brilliant stand-up comic."

Whether performing solo, as guest soloist with the symphonies or at a folk, jazz, rock or blues venues around the world, Siegel is known for bridging the gap between classical and popular music—attracting and exciting new audiences.

Square dance club

The Paddock Lake Square Dance Club invites all square dancers to the November square dance on Thursday, Nov. 12 at Central High School in Paddock Lake. Harry Lind will be calling squares from 8 to 10 p.m. Refreshments will be served after the dance.

Sculptor Croydon will exhibit at CLC gallery

Sculptures and drawings by Michael Croydon will be exhibited at the College of Lake County's Community Gallery of Art from Nov. 20 through Dec. 20. The opening reception will be held Friday, Nov. 20 from 7 to 9 p.m. in the gallery, with light classical music provided by pianist Diane Madsen. The exhibit and reception are free and open to the public.

Croydon, a professor of art at Lake Forest College, is a figurative sculptor who creates dramatic and expressionistic work in bronze and terra cotta that reflect upon the human condition.

In addition to his sculptures, he will exhibit working drawings to demonstrate how a piece of art evolves into its final form.

The gallery, which is sponsored by the College of Lake County Foundation, is located at the college's main campus in Grayslake.

Gallery hours are 8 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Friday; 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday; and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday.

For more information, call (312)223-6601 ext. 240.

'Uncle' Roy Reinholds will call barn dance

An old time, traditional barn dance, the Fall Barn Dance, will be held Saturday, Nov. 14 at 7:30 p.m. at the Park Dist. Bldg., 32 S. Seymour in downtown Grayslake. There will be free lessons preceding the dance from 7 to 7:30 p.m.

Live music will be provided by Ron Brown on fiddle and his wife Sandy on guitar while the old time dances will be called by "Uncle" Roy Reinholds. They will play old time tunes that have been danced to by Americans of yesteryear at grange halls, old barns and big city lodge halls and ballrooms.

Barn Dancing differs from modern "mainstream" and "plus" square dancing in that there is always live music at barn dances and the dances are traditional. Costume is not important.

This is the second in the current series of old time barn dances presented the second Saturday of the month. December's dance will be the "Yule Tide Hoedown" on Dec. 12. The admission to each dance is $3 a person. The lessons are free.

The park district building is located just west of the Soo Line Railroad tracks and one-half block south of Center St., in downtown Grayslake. For more information about barn dancing, call Uncle Roy, (312)223-2081.

The Waukegan Symphony Chorus and Dir. Don Horisberger continue to be recognized for excellence in the choral art. They have recently received two prestigious invitations to perform in music capitals in this country and in Europe.

Having been favorably impressed by the volunteer ensemble's discipline and professionalism during an appearance at New York City's Lincoln Center last April, MidAmerica Productions, Inc., Peter E. Tiboris, general director, has invited the chorus to perform in London on one of a series of concerts featuring distinguished American choruses and London's famed orchestra.

The July 2, 1988 performance is to be held in Barbican Hall with the Philharmonica Orchestra. In addition, Dr. Horisberger, who is increasingly recognized as a distinguished musician in the choral music field, has been invited to conduct a portion of the program.

The second invitation comes from the Manhattan Philharmonic, Peter E. Tiboris, music director, for a performance in New York City's Carnegie Hall. One of the Fall Masterworks Choral Series, this concert is to be held Oct. 24, 1988 and requires a 5-day residency.

Upon hearing the good news at a recent rehearsal, chorus members were excited about the prospects of a return engagement to the Big Apple.

Regretfully, however, both invitations have been declined primarily due to the lack of funds.

Following discussions based on results from plans made for the trip last April, it was projected that nine to 12 months was not sufficient time for the massive fund-raising effort that would be needed.

Though initially disappointed by this decision, Chorus members remain extremely proud of the honors bestowed on them.

Currently, the chorus is rehearsing for a Dec. 5 Christmas concert to be held in Waukegan's Historic Genesee Theatre. Additional concert dates are Feb. 20 and May 7, 1988.

Museum readies for 46th ethnic holiday festival

The holiday traditions and customs of 42 nations and ethnic groups will be showcased during Chicago's Museum of Science and Industry's 46th annual "Christmas Around the World" Festival, scheduled from Nov. 27 through Jan. 3.

The year's festival will feature 37 giant trees bedecked with the handcrafted ornaments, trinkets and garlands from the lands of various participants, as well as a number of nativity scenes. In addition, hundreds of Chicago-area choral groups will perform some of the season's best-loved carols on a daily basis.

Free theater performances featuring the music, songs, dance and pageantry of the participating groups will take place in the Museum's Auditorium from Nov. 27 through Dec. 20. Evening performances will be offered at 7:30 p.m. on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays beginning Nov. 27, and at 12:30, 2, 3:30 and 5 p.m. on Saturdays beginning Nov. 28, except on Dec. 5, when the first show is scheduled for 10 a.m. Sunday performances will be held at 2, 3:30 and 5 p.m., except on Nov. 29, when the first show begins at 3:30 p.m.

Another popular feature of the Museum's annual Christmas attraction is the International Buffet-served beginning Friday, Nov. 27 through Sunday, Dec. 20-complete with a complimentary glass of wine and a full array of holiday foods corresponding to the ethnic groups performing the Auditorium. The buffet will be served in the Century and Columbian Rooms with seatings at 4, 5:30 and 7 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays, and at 11 a.m., 12:30, 2, 3:30 and p.m. on Sundays. Prices are $12.95 for adults, $5.95 for children ages five to 11, and $3.95 for children ages two to four. These prices do not include tax. Special discounts will be available for Museum members. Reservations can be made by calling the Museum at (312) 684-1414, ext. 290.

Additional food offerings include "International Luncheon Buffets," for groups of 20 or more, Mondays through Thursdays, Nov. 23 through Dec. 17. Reservations are required.

There also will be an International Food Faire in the Museum's West Pavilion, open throughout the Christmas festival, where visitors will be able to sample a wide assortment of coffees, teas, hot chocolates, pastries, and sandwiches from around the world. Take-outs will be available.

Two new major holiday exhibitions—"Holiday Toy Town" and antique toys—also will be on display. In the "Holiday Toy Town," presented by the Eveready Battery Co., more than 150 new, exciting battery-powered toys and games will be featured within a colorful Dickens-like yule setting.

The collection of Chicagoan Charles Sharp, featuring antique toys dating from as far back as 1925, will also be displayed for the first time. Featured are many wind-up cars, trucks and airplanes. Other toys are drawn from old-time cartoon favorites, including Moon Mullins, Popeye, L'il Abner, Mickey Mouse and Pluto. One-time celebrities also are spotlighted, such as Sonja Henie, Harold Lloyd, the Lone Ranger and others.

Visitors will be able to take a little bit of the festival home with them when they stop in the Museum's festive Christmas Shoppe, offering hundreds of unique ornaments and decorations, many of them handcrafted from throughout the globe.

For more information on the "Christmas Around the World" festival, call the Museum's reservation number of (312) 684-1414, ext. 290.

The Museum is located at 57th St. and Lake Shore Dr. Hours are 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays, and 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. weekends and holidays. Visitors may view the trees and creches during evening hours when the buffet and theater programs are offered on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays until 8 p.m., from Nov. 27 through Dec. 20. The Museum is handicapped accessible and open Christmas Day. Admission and parking are free.

Frigate's roars with comedy on Thursday nights

by CHARLES JOHNSTON

Comedy has come to west Lake County. Every Thursday night, Frigate's in Long Lake presents "Roars," a variety of professional comedians who play the circuit.

The fun begins at 7:30 p.m. in a dimly lit room. The routine is to have a rookie comedian act as emcee, follow up with an up-and-coming act, and bring the house down with the headliner, a star who travels across the country.

A lover of comedy, I used to travel up to Libertyville from time to time to catch the show. The rookie comedian this time, Ken Buchanan, was the finest I've seen. He was heavy on the sports jokes - it wasn't a good night for a Green Bay Packer fan to stop out.

Critic's Choice In... Lakeland

Between acts and after the show, he kept the crowd going with a lot of audience participation and didn't get thrown when a joke bombed.

The up-and-coming act, Nick Gaza, started off laid back and then got hot. A bit portly, his jokes about his weight were not so funny. He got better as he talked about his abysmal love life and the love song he sang for his former girlfriend was hilarious.

But he really got cranking when he went into a routine about the Catholic school he attended as a boy. "We had the toughest nuns in the world," he said. "One wore chains and a leather habit. She had a tattoo on her shoulder, 'Born to raise Catholics.' Our principal was Sister T. How she got that habit into a Mohawk I'll never know."

I couldn't tell who was and wasn't Catholic in the room because everyone was rolling in the aisles.

Ted Holum, the headliner, was the most consistently funny act, though he did not have anything quite as uproarious as the "Sister T" routine by Gaza.

Holum is a funny looking guy with a weak chin, which he got into the act. "I'd be great in the old west," he said, turning sideways and showing almost no chin at all. "They couldn't hang me. I'd slip right through. The only danger would be if the rope caught on my nose. Every time I see someone with a double chin, I wonder if they'd be interested in selling one."

He was particularly good at asking audience members their name or occupation and making a joke out of it.

"What are you, miss?"

"A legal secretary."

"How long were you illegal?"

The nice thing about a comedy club is that it is a different show every week. The shows are addictive-like potato chips, you can't settle for just one.

The shows are every Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. at Frigates on Lakeshore Dr. in Long Lake. Make sure to make reservations because the room fills up quickly. For reservations, call (312) 587-3211.

Set Spanish pianist's recital at Communication Arts Theater

Carmen Vila, the Spanish pianist who was UW-Parkside's first artist-in-residence, will return to the campus Sunday, Nov. 15, to present a 2 p.m. recital in the Communication Arts Theatre.

Vila, who taught master classes and performed throughout southeastern Wisconsin during her UW-P tenure from 1968-73, has performed worldwide to critical acclaim. In addition to performing with major orchestras in Europe and with the Milwaukee Symphony, Vila was featured in the Jeunesses Musicales International Artists Series at Carnegie Hall in a recital which won praise from the New York Times.

Since leaving UW-Parkside and returning to her native Spain, Vila has concertized with major orchestras and presented recitals in the leading concert halls of Europe. Spanish critics currently rate Vila on a par with the renowned Alicia de Larrocha as Spain's leading pianist.

Vila holds a chair and is a master teacher at the music conservatory in Barcelona, where she teaches only students who plan to become concert pianists, including a number of young American students.

Vila began her musical studies at four and at 12 entered the Conservatory of Music of Barcelona. Though it normally takes eight years to finish, Vila passed all examinations with special honors when she was 16, winning the school's first prize and gold medal.

She obtained honors at the Academy of Music in Vienna, then studied in master classes of Alfred Brendel, Georg Demus and Paul Badura-Skoda. In Vienna, she won the Schubert-Haydn International Competition, in Italy the first prize of the Academia Chigiano of Siena, and in England the Harriett Cohen Medal.

Her return to southeastern Wisconsin is being arranged by a group of her friends in Racine. She will stay with close friend Hilda Greenquist, widow of Kenneth L. Greenquist, who was president of the UW Board of Regents at the time of UW-Parkside's founding.

Vila played at the dedication of Greenquist Hall, named for him, in 1969 when the campus' first academic building opened.

She returned to Racine and Kenosha in 1976 to play a benefit concert for the newly-opened Racine Theatre Guild Playhouse, a long-time project of Mrs. Greenquist and others, and to play at the dedication of the Irvin G. Wyllie Library-Learning Center at UW-Parkside.

Proceeds from her UW-Parkside recital will go toward the university's scholarship fund. Her program will consist of selections from Spanish composers Granados, Mompou and Albeniz as well as Rachmaninoff, Liszt and Scarlatti. A reception will follow the recital.

While here, Vila will present a master class for UW-Parkside and Carthage College students at UW-P and a master class for students at Prairie School in Racine.

Payton loves song

Connie Payton, wife of Bears Walter Payton, congratulates Ruth Nathan Anderson, Round Lake, on record of 'I Like Chicagoland' in which words 'Walter Payton's eyes give me a thrill appear'.

CLC honors poetry winners

The Glass Dictionary, the College of Lake County's literary arts club, announced the winners of its first high school poetry contest, which drew 243 submissions from 114 students representing 14 high schools in Lake County.

James Lundstrom, a senior at Barrington High School, took top honors with his poem "The Windowsill Cat." Second place went to Amy Korytowski, a senior at Carmel High School for Girls for "The Divorce." Amy is a resident of Mundelein. Third place was awarded to Ken Eldridge, a junior at Carmel High School for Boys, for "Thanksgiving Day." Eldridge is a resident of Lake Zurich.

ASK TONI

Chuck Woolery once spun the wheel of fortune

By Toni Reinhold

Who was the original host of "Wheel of Fortune"? Was it Chuck Woolery? — P.I., Lowell, Mass.

Chuck Woolery

The first show called "Wheel of Fortune" was hosted by Todd Russell, and aired in 1952 and 1953. It had a different format than today's show. Contestants told stories of heroic deeds they had performed, and a "wheel of fortune" was spun to determine their reward.

The current "Wheel of Fortune" premiered in NBC's daytime lineup in January 1975. It was hosted by veteran game-show host Chuck Woolery. He later was replaced by Pat Sajak, and when the show began airing in syndication in 1983, Sajak continued as host, with Vanna White as his assistant.

About 40 years ago I saw a wonderful movie called "Always in My Heart." Would you please print some details about it? — F.I., Scottsboro, Ala.

This 1942 drama

starred Kay Francis, Walter Huston, and Sidney Blackmer. Huston played a convict who returned from prison to find his wife (Francis) ready to marry another man (Blackmer).

The recent Perry Mason TV movie "The Case of the Murdered Madam" featured Vincent Baggetta. Has he starred in any TV series? — B.R., Washington, Ill.

Baggetta played the title role in NBC's "The Eddie Capra Mysteries," which aired during the 1978 season. And he played public defender Lou Pelligrini in the 1982 series "Chicago Story."

What is the name of the movie in which a man (he was played by Cary Grant) and a woman are killed in a car accident, but come back to Earth to haunt another man? Who else starred in it? — W.J.M., Peoria, Ill.

You're thinking of "Topper" (1937), which starred Constance Bennett and Roland Young as well as Grant. Young was the object of Grant and Bennett's pranks. The film prompted two sequels, "Topper Takes a Trip" (1939) and "Topper Returns" (1941), a '50s TV series with a similar premise and a 1979 TV movie remake starring Andrew Stevens and Kate Jackson.

30 DAYS ASTROLOGUE

P. D. Smith
Week of Nov. 15-21, 1987

ARIES
(March 21-April 20)
The pattern for this week is hardly a simple one. It is marked with close ties, money and new plans.

TAURUS
(April 21-May 20)
You can accomplish far more than you had originally thought possible. But in order to do it, you must maintain your balance.

GEMINI
(May 21-June 20)
It's more than a question, now, of affection. What's called for is trust — on all levels. And that's not easy to come by.

CANCER
(June 21-July 22)
Realize that your personal life is in a state of transition. And it will be for some time. Try to lighten the grip.

LEO
(July 23-Aug. 22)
Call, contact, and in general meet with those who have a real influence on the ebb and flow of your world.

VIRGO
(Aug. 23-Sept. 22)
Sidestep any tendency now to be harsh or insensitive to others. Much of what you say this week will long be remembered.

LIBRA
(Sept. 23-Oct. 22)
This can be an extremely important week for you, one in which you realize your heart's desire. And that is a considerable feat.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 23-Nov. 22)
Before you come out into the bright light of day, finish some vital behind-the-scenes work. It will require real effort.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
Friends and close associates are everywhere. If you're not careful, they could pull you off your original course of action.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
Stand your ground, but hold it with grace, humor and an acute sense of the right moment. You will get your way, after all.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 20-Feb. 18)
One thing leads to another this week. Suddenly, you find yourself in close contact with those in power positions.

PISCES
(Feb. 19-March 20)
The week ahead promises to be one of complex undertakings, as you now plan, plot and scheme. Stay with it!

Lakes Region Museum has exciting agenda

The Lakes Region Historical Society has some exciting news about upcoming special events. First, the exhibits have been changed. Emphasis this month is on the region's role in the country's conflicts. The museum has material exhibits covering the Civil War, thorough Vietnam conflict. A fall prize giveaway, "Winter Warm-up," is also underway. This is a critical fundraiser. Museum members need to raise enough money to pay for the year's operating expenses (heat, light, phone and mailing costs). The prize list is impressive. The drawing will be held on Saturday, Dec. 19. People helped the Historical Society in the past with the renovation program; now the society needs public support and help to keep the museum open. Anyone who can sell extra tickets can call Al Little, (312)395-7700, ext. 71, or (312)395-2223. A special collector's show will be held at the museum from 10:30 a.m.

to 3:30 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 21, for one day only. Arrangements have been made to exhibit a number of fine collections, including Barbie dolls, miniature guns, buttons, glassware, steins, cats, antiques, and suitcase souvenirs. Come see what neighbors collect. The museum volunteers are asking for a $1 donation for the show. Anyone having a collection they'd like to display can call the museum, (312)395-7337 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday; or call (312)395-3737. Anyone who hasn't visited the museum lately can stop in. Exhibits are changed on a regular basis. The Christmas shop is open now, with holiday items for sale. There will be no meeting of the Historical Society in November due to Thanksgiving. The December meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 3, at the museum. There will also be a Christmas party with the AARP All-Stars.

CLC to host public forum on arms race Nov. 14

The College of Lake County is hosting a public forum on the arms race on Saturday, Nov. 14. The purpose is to reach state and federal legislators with the opinion of Lake County citizens about the colliding superpowers.

The forum's convenor, Edward J. Snyder, director of student activities, said, "This is the opportunity for citizens to come together to review a very important national issue through the National Issues Forum handbook."

The handbook, "The Superpowers: Nuclear Weapons and National Security" is the result of NIF researchers who developed the idea and consolidated various points of view. Snyder said the topic is presented much more in depth than it has been in the media.

The forum will be held on CLC's Grayslake campus, in the auditorium, on Saturday, Nov. 14 from 1 to 5 p.m. There is a $3 charge for the handbook. There will be an introductory session on the topic, then participants will break into small discussion groups to discuss their views and form concluding statements for state and federal legislators.

Snyder said that the integrity of the forum is maintained through roles of the moderators and recorders in each discussion group. The moderator's role is to establish and maintain ground rules, move the conversation forward, and to see that all points of view are given equal weight.

The recorder's role is to identify the salient points in the discussion that are to be included in the report to state and federal legislators.

The idea to participate was suggested by CLC's president, Dr. LaVista. Lake County citizens will add their voice to the estimated 100,000 who will take part in this national discussion which is sponsored by the Domestic Policy Assn., which represents the pooled resources of a national network of community groups and educational organizations.

Snyder said he hopes to attract a wide variety of people to discuss the subject.

Appoint Schaffer

Senate Minority Leader James "Pate" Philip (R-Wood Dale) has announced the appointment of Sen. Jack Schaffer (R-McHenry County) to the Senate Rules Committee.

"I'm very pleased to announce Sen. Schaffer's appointment to this important committee. The rules committee must review and act on all proposed changes of rules and regulations that govern the operation of the Senate," Sen. Philip explained.

"The committee will be especially important in 1988 because during even-numbered years non-budget measures must go through the rules committee before they can be debated in the Senate. If the rules committee doesn't consider a substantive bill to be an emergency, if affectively dies," he said.

"I am honored to have been chosen to serve on this committee," Sen. Schaffer said. "I look forward to serving with my fellow senators as we tackle the important issues that come before us and I welcome the challenge."

Other Republican members of the committee are Sen. Stanley Weaver (R-Urbana), Sen. Aldo DeAngelis (R-Olympia Fields) and Sen. John Davidson (R-Springfield).

Barkhausen survey shows opposition to school tax

State Sen. David N. Barkhausen (R-Lake Joliet) reports that increasing taxes to pay for education is not a popular idea with 30th District constituents who filled out questionnaires in his fall survey.

The list of nine questions was included in Barkhausen's annual newsletter, which was mailed to voters this fall. Of the more than 600 responses tallied so far, 83 percent were against a state income tax increase from the existing 2.5 percent to 3 percent to provide more school money.

Barkhausen said he was somewhat surprised that the sentiment against higher taxes for schools was so overwhelming. "But I suppose the reaction might be expected, when you consider that most schools in my district receive very little state aid, in spite of the fact that my constituents pay a proportionately large share of the income taxes that are collected in the state," he said.

His proposal for using phone taps in investigations of drug dealing, terrorism and hostage situations had the support of 93 percent of those participating in the survey.

Barkhausen said it is very unusual to have such a strong consensus on an issue, and he plans to use this evidence to support when he tries again for a phone tap law in the General Assembly next year.

District residents seem to favor the selective use of drug testing to combat widespread drug abuse. Another question on which there was strong consensus was whether workers involved in occupations affecting public safety should be required to undergo drug testing, to which 93 percent said yes. There was 80 percent support for drug testing in schools.

Several legislative proposals Barkhausen has made or supported had the approval of constituents. One that would permit schools to drop mandated programs when the state does not provide funding drew a 76 percent yes vote. Another requiring sobriety tests for all drivers involved in accidents that result in inquiries had the support of 73 percent of respondents, and the tally was 76 percent for taking away vehicle license plates when owners continue to drive after their drivers licenses have been revoked.

The vote on his other two questions were less clear-cut. He asked if surrogate motherhood contracts, a concept he opposes, should be valid in Illinois, and 56 percent of respondents said no, while 44 percent said yes.

A question on whether local school districts should be allowed to designate their own holiday observances, other than Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's and Memorial Day, drew a response of 55 percent yes and 45 percent no. Barkhausen feels the school calendar is too broken up with days off and wants to give districts the opportunity to opt out of some holiday observances.

"I am very grateful to the many people who took time to fill out the questionnaires and return them to me," Barkhausen said. "Their opinions are very important to me, both in deciding what legislation I will sponsor and how I will vote on the major issues that come before the General Assembly."

RTA to help prevent congestion

by ADAM H. KERMAN

"We want to be part of the solution, not part of the problem," said Theodore Weigle, executive director of the Regional Transportation Authority, addressing Lake County's need to prevent the kind of traffic congestion that is plaguing the northwest suburbs and DuPage County.

Weigle, and other members of the transit and planning communities convened a Transportation Options conference at the Marriot Hotel, in Lincolnshire, on Thursday and Friday, October 29 and 30. Conference participants included county, municipal, and township officials and staff, and representatives of developers and the business community.

The Lake County conference was the last in a series. Similar conferences had been held in DuPage and northwest Cook Counties.

Weigle said he was very pleased with the reception in the area.

"People were sympathetic, but realistic."

"There was a strong interest in a new commuter line (along the Soo Line). There was also a strong interest in keeping the Elgin, Joliet and Eastern open, and available for future needs," he said.

Weigle said that Peter Haverkamp, senior vice president, Homart Development (Sears), agreed to host a Lake-Cook Rd. transportation management association to find solutions there.

Weigle has said that Lake County is going the same route as northwest Cook and DuPage Counties and could face similar congestion in the near future.

"Lake County is allowing developers to put up millions of square feet of office space without worrying about public transit," he said.

"The real issue is, how much denser can development be? How could new projects be designed to lessen congestion?" he asked.

Weigle felt that additional fixed route transit is not the answer for Lake County.

"Densities are too low; simply adding buses is not going to work," he said.

Sidney Danoff of Waukegan, member of the RTA board for over ten years, said, "We got some elected officials involved. There weren't many municipal officials involved."

He felt it is not RTA's place to dictate solutions, such as land use reform, to the suburban areas.

"We are letting Lake County bring the situation to us. If we don't get good input from officials, we won't arrive at a common solution that's good for all," he said.

Danoff said that the Lake County conference is being held before the traffic situation gets out of hand.

"In DuPage and the northwest suburbs, congestion is already there; all we can do is react to the mess."

"In Lake, we still have time to change the pattern."

"We can be pro-active, rather than reactive," he said.

Weigle said that other parts of the suburban area have not been interested in similar conferences.

RTA panel urges rail projects for County

A panel of Lake County officials and transportation experts assembled by the Regional Transportation Authority has recommended that several area transportation projects be pursued immediately, including several rail projects.

The recommendations include a new Milwaukee Road station at Lake-Cook Rd. in Deerfield; preservation of the Elgin, Joliet and Eastern rights-of-way for possible future acquisition; new commuter service for the Soo Line (now Wisconsin Central) through Mundelein and Wheeling; and joint development of land at railroad stations.

The new Milwaukee Road station in Deerfield would serve commuters from the Chain-o-Lakes area who work in the many office buildings along Lake-Cook Rd.

The panel also urged RTA to sponsor a series of pilot projects that would serve the low-density development of the county, where traditional transit solutions would be unfeasible.

These projects include employer-sponsored vans, taxis, and other experiments.

The panel was chaired by Peter Haverkamp of Homart Development. Members were George Bell, Fremont

Supervisor; Kirk Brown, director of planning and programming, Illinois Department of Transportation; Martin Bueller, Lake County highway superintendent; Robert Cervero, associate professor, city and regional planning, University of California at Berkeley; Verna Clayton, president, Village of Buffalo Grove; Robert G. Fischer, director of planning, Orange County (California) Environmental Management Agency; James Labelle, chairman of the Lake County Board; Kenneth Orski, president, Urban Mobility Corp.; Harry C. Pettengill, manager, corporate facilities planning, Abbott Laboratories; Mervin Pilotte, director of the Lake County Area Vocational Center; and Jeffrey Zupan, director of planning, New Jersey Transit.

The panel identified three traffic "hot spots" in the county, Lake-Cook Rd., Tri-State Tollway, and Milwaukee Ave. It recommended that transportation management associations be established for each of them. Haverkamp will chair the association for Lake-Cook Rd.

The panel's findings will be available in January.

Quill Corp.'s growth opens new jobs in area

Due to continuing growth, job recruitment efforts are gearing up in Lincolnshire at Quill Corp.—the largest independent distributor of office products in the United States—where 60 positions recently opened up, the majority a direct result of increased sales.

The 31-year-old operation, the country's largest business-to-business catalog house, reportedly is doing in excess of $200 million in sales. The company's growth throughout the country is expected to continue at a rapid pace. As a result of this growth, Quill is proceeding with plans to open a new, 217,000-square foot distribution center in June of 1988 in Ontario, Calif.

"We have increased personnel more than 20 percent a year for at least the past 10 years as a result of increased sales volume," said Jack Miller, founder and president of Quill.

"This all adds up to new jobs in the northwest suburbs, everywhere from the warehouse to upper-level professional positions," said Robert Worobow, vice president of human resources.

Quill offers programs to help women re-entering the workforce to sharpen their skills. More and more capable women are interested in going back to work after taking time off to start their families, or who have been employed by other companies and desire a change.

"We will be conducting seminars for women returning to the workforce to explore the benefits and demands of the modern workplace. They will be offered free to the community," Miller said.

Increasing numbers of high-tech businesses are moving to the suburbs. This movement is very appealing to those who seek to remain at the forefront of their careers while enabling them to work where they live.

Quill is located on a wooded 42-acre campus. Its pay scale is in the top 25 percent of the metropolitan area, and it offers an innovative benefits package. Beyond that, Quill offers a subsidized cafeteria with a professional chef, a running track and employee-organized after work activities such as baseball, bowling and self-development courses.

Carol Anderson, employment manager, said the new jobs cover the spectrum, including telephone order representatives, a financial reporting specialist, an inventory control trainee, a publication advertising specialist, a marketing statistician, a transportation supervisor, an advertising representative and a copy writer.

Protect outdoor foliage from winter injuries

Wind, sun and freezing temperatures take a toll on landscaping plants through the winter.

Signs of winter injury include discolored cankers or sunscald on exposed limbs or at the trunk base, damage to the taproot and side roots and injury to leaf and flower buds. In some cases, homeowners will see blackened sapwood and death of the entire plant, says Bob Schmerbauch, Lake County Cooperative Extension Service Adviser.

Frost cracks are the most common signs of winter injury. Frost cracks are vertical separations of bark and wood on the south or southwest side of a trunk. The cracks may extend to the center of a tree and cause it to break apart under the weight of snow or ice.

Young, thin-barked trees can be protected from frost cracks by wrapping the trunks with sisal-kraft paper, strips of burlap or aluminum foil. A coat of whitewash or six inch board tied upright on the south-southwest side of the trunk also can work, Schmerbauch says.

Trees subject to frost crack if they are planted in exposed locations include apple, ash, beech, elm, horsechestnut, linden, London plane, maple, oak, poplar, sycamore, tulip tree, walnut and willow.

Boxwood, junipers, yews and other multiple-stemmed evergreens that tend to develop frost cracks can spread, split apart and break under a load of ice or snow. Protect these trees by tying the branches together with strong cord, Schmerbauch advises.

YWCA to provide childcare

The YWCA of Lake County has started a support group for people who are providing child care services in their homes. The next meeting will be held on Monday, Nov. 30 from 7 to 9 p.m. at the YWCA, 445 N. Genesee, Waukegan. Daycare Training Seminars are also offered. Sessions will be held for four weeks on Tuesday nights from 7 to 9 p.m., and are open to people interested in childcare, current childcare providers and parents interested in information for their own children.

Raise money for handicapped

Jones Intercable has announced that their annual fundraiser for local chapters of Special Olympics has netted donations of $15,000 this year.

The two-month long campaign held by the cable company included a waiver of cable fees in exchange for a donation to Special Olympics. Jones Intercable also donated proceeds from their coverage of the Illinois State Softball Championships.

"We're very proud to have this opportunity to help support an excellent organization like Special Olympics," said Patricia McCann, regional manager for Jones Intercable.

Jones Intercable systems across the country hold fundraising events each year to benefit Special Olympics. The local Jones Intercable systems serve residents in Orland Park, Libertyville, Mundelein, Grayslake and Wauconda. Proceeds of the local campaign will be divided between Lake County and Cook County chapters of Special Olympics.

"Our commitment to Special Olympics and the generosity of local residents have helped provide much needed funds to this important resource in our communities," said McCann.

Antioch to light up on day after Thanksgiving

by CAROLYN HAMMOND
(312)395-6081

There are only 41 more shopping days to Christmas, folks! Have you thought about Christmas yet? Yep, it's that time of year already.

Peter's School yet? There are 10 entertaining rooms for your enjoyment to choose from. You can plan to make it a complete evening from dinner at the "Chez Paree" restaurant to playing at the "Full the national "Book-it" program to encourage children to read at home. Keep up the good work. Our town is fortunate to have so many good scholars working hard to give our children the best possible education.

At 7 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 19, W.C. Petty School will present a Fall Music Program by the kindergarten, first and second grades. Everyone is invited to join the parents and friends for a very entertaining evening. The little ones are so precious and a delight to watch.

W.C. Petty students are not only singing these days but are working on penmanship. Student of the Month awards for Penmanship have been announced. The winners are: Billy Del'Ve, Jeff Rajamaki-first graders. Ariane Bakker, Jim Combs, Jim Friddle, David Gooch-second graders. Mandy Long, Melissa Simbrowsky, Peter Komzik-third graders. Danny Jaspersen, Raza Elez-fourth graders. Marya Balliu, Kathy Kosgarian, Keith Vusch-fifth graders. Congratulations!

If they gave out awards for toughness, the Boy Scouts and leaders of Antioch Troop 80 would be sure to qualify. They defied the cold and rainy weather and spent the weekend of Nov. 6-8 at the Northern Illinois Conservation Club grounds working on service and merit badges plus sleeping in the all-natural survival shelter they had built out of branches and cat tails.

Hope they had warm sleeping bags! Heard the shelter was so sturdy that three boys could stand on the roog without hurting it.

Notes & News

So what if Thanksgiving Day hasn't been celebrated yet! Why, even the Village of Antioch is getting into the swing; it's planning the annual village Christmas Tree Lighting ceremony for the day after Thanksgiving.

Nevertheless, for those of us who are still having trouble writing November of our checks, other events take center stage. Speaking of stage...

Have you attended "Footlights '87" at St.

House" Casino (Saturday only) to a full range of local musical talent. Remember, it's all for a good cause—St. Peter's School.

The doors will open for its last weekend at 6 p.m. Friday, Nov. 13 and Saturday, Nov. 14. Tickets are still available at a $2 savings per ticket in advance at all Antioch financial institutions, Realty World-Tiffany and St. Peter's Rectory. Admission at the door is $7 on Friday and $9 on Saturday.

Even though PM&L Theatre is getting ready for its next show, two casts of eight performers each is presenting four to five shows nightly at "Footlights" of "Wild Flowering of Chastity" or subtitled "Chaste Across the Stage." Don't miss it!

And don't miss the traditional champagne party that PM&L will host following its opening night performance of Paul Loomis' comic "mellerdramer" "Pure as the Driven Snow," Friday, Nov. 20. Come and see how love foils a fiendish plot to destroy fidelity in this production directed by Larry Bersie. Curtain time for Friday's performance and the following night, Saturday, Nov. 21 is 8 p.m. Reservations are suggested. Call the ticket line at (312)395-3055.

It is nice to see patriotism taught to our youngsters. Antioch Grade School students saluted our country's veterans in their traditional outside (cold or not) flagraising ceremony on Nov. 10.

Beginning with a speech on the significance of the day, the students recited the pledge to the flag, the intermediate band students of the school performed, and they finished with a rousing rendition of "America" by the band and the student body.

Antioch Grade School is also one of the many schools participating in

CLC soccer team enjoys its international flavor

Reading the roster of the College of Lake County soccer team is like reading roll call at the United Nations.

The Lancers, who finished the season at 10-6 after a semifinal loss this week in the National Junior College Athletic Assn. Region IV tournament, field nine players who were born or lived in seven different foreign countries. But in spite of differences in playing style, and at times, language, the team became a cohesive unit with a winning record under Coach Dave Beck.

"This team is a microism of community colleges," said Beck. "The players come from all walks of life and all backgrounds. But they have sports in common, and that draws them together."

Snares of Spanish, English or a curious mix of both ring out as players call from an open position or warn defenders of oncoming opposition.

"On the field, you have a split second to communicate," said Beck. "Sometimes it comes out in Spanish."

If points were awarded for cultural diversity, here's how CLC would go undefeated:

Robert Jansen came to Libertyville as a third grader via Brazil, and he cites his Latin teammates for their quick passing and ball control skills.

Jose Diaz left Honduras to join his family in Waukegan at age 12. "Back home," he said, "we practice harder. But we didn't have so many grassy fields to play on."

George Martinez and his family left Mexico just three years ago and settled in Mundelein. "I like to meet people from different countries. Besides, I speak Spanish, so it doesn't bother me."

Luis Holguin, a native of Mexico who now lives in Waukegan, has played soccer since he was seven and hopes to make a career of it. He was selected to the All-Region IV team after the Lancer's first-round victory over Wright.

Robert Segovia left El Salvador at age five and has lived in Mundelein for the past five years. He didn't play soccer until he came to the U.S., but he hopes to continue playing when he transfers to a four-year school.

Samuel Viera, who left El Salvador three years ago and lives in Waukegan, says he has learned "new words" from his foreign-born and domestic teams.

BE PREPARED FOR WINTER'S BLAST! IT'S NEW...THE

Heat Machine

IT'S HARD TO BELIEVE, BUT IT'S TRUE!
It's called the Heat Machine, a furnace so small you can hold it in the palm of your hand. Heats up to 500 square feet.

Even more amazing is the cost-efficiency of this device. The Heat Machine costs $8-$10 a month when operated 8-10 hours a day. The variation depends on insulation factors and local electrical rates.

The Heat Machine is Underwriters Laboratory approved and its solid state heating elements have an unlimited life expectancy. The fan life is estimated to be 100,000 hours or 20 years of heating.

The Heat Machine is totally fire safe. To demonstrate this, a match or a piece of tissue can be left in the grill, and yet never ignite.

The Heat Machine takes air from a room, filters it through special semiconductor discs, heats the discs to a maximum 380 degrees and then blows the heated air into the room. Once a room reaches a designated temperature, the heating device self-adjusts resulting in less energy consumption.

Libertyville teaches Panthers lesson in two-game sectional

When a volleyball team reaches sectional level, it can either assume the role of "teacher" or "student".

Unfortunately for Round Lake's volleyball team, the Panthers were the "student" of the contest as Libertyville eliminated Round Lake 15-7, 15-3.

"They've been here so many times before. They've been to the state finals. There's a big difference between saying 'this game is ours' and wondering what to do when you get there," Round Lake coach Brian Brown said afterword.

The Panthers, who finished 18-10-1 on the season, challenged Libertyville in the first game but fell short in the second.

"There was a couple of bright spots. This was the first time since 1981 that we made sectionals," Brown said.

Round Lake was at another disadvantage because of a mid-season disciplinary problem which led to six players being dismissed from the team. The "replacements" won five of seven matches.

The Panthers, who won the Antioch regional meet, trailed just 2-1 in the early going in game one before Libertyville gained a 4-1 lead on the serving of Chrissy Milligan.

Libertyville gained a 7-2 advantage, but Round Lake rallied on the strength of two aces by Cyndie Donner to close the gap to 7-5.

The Wildcats then took charge, allowing Round Lake just two points after that.

Game two was all Libertyville. The Wildcats led 10-0 before the Panthers even got to serve.

"They kind of quit believing in themselves. I was afraid that would happen," Brown said.

Elsewhere, Stevenson winners of the Highland Park regional, were eliminated at Palatine by Hersey.

Kevin Frystak keeps league's MVP award all-in-the-family

Northwest Suburban Conference defensive coordinators will be happy about one thing when the 1988 football season starts next August. They won't have to worry about picking a player named Frystak out of Grant backfield.

Both Brad and Kevin will be only memories on film for the defensive minded folks. Last year, it was Brad who took home the NWSC's top honor of Most Valuable Player. This year it was Kevin.

"They were both very competitive," Grant coach Mike Rogowski said of the Frystaks.

With the Frystaks taking the handoffs from Garry Glauser in 1986 and Jim Geever last fall, the Bulldogs, who are 6-3 this year, had an overall league record of 12-2 over the last two seasons. The duo ran as a tandem last year, leading Grant to the playoffs for

Unbeatable

Pittsfield's Sauksee Indians hold the record for the longest winning streak. The Indians won 64 games from 1966 until it ended in 1973. In second place was East St. Louis winning streak of 44 straight.

Retirement preparation

Northern Illinois Medical Center in McHenry is sponsoring a four-part seminar, "Preparing for Retirement: A Program of Survival." Parts two through four will be held Wednesdays, Nov. 4, 11 and 18. Topics to be covered include marital and family relationships, later retirement, self-inventory and looking ahead to the future. For information, call the MC Dept. of Education, (815)344-5927, ext. 4200.

The Florida alternative, trip to the Bahamas

JIM WARNKEN

President, North Star Travel Inc.

Less than 50 miles off the coast of Florida lies the land of Bimini, the closest of over 700 islands that make up the country known as the Bahamas. What does the Bahamas have to offer that you can't get in Florida?

How about crystal clear waters, miles of powder white sand beaches and some of the best scuba diving and anywhere! That should satisfy sun and sand lovers. For the Vegas crowd, Paradise Island Casino and Cable Beach Casino will be most happy to take your money!

The Bahamas is divided into three areas. New Providence Island is where you'll find the capital city, Nassau. This city has a long and colorful history. It is long the home of pirates and buccaneers. You can still visit the watch tower used by Edward Teach (you know him as Blackbeard.)

Cable Beach is also on New Providence Island, five miles west of Nassau. Most of the newer hotels are located there.

Connected to New Providence Island by a long, high bridge is Paradise Island, also the home of the newest and most exclusive hotels as well as the Paradise Island Casino.

The other main island is Grand Bahama Island, home of Freeport/Lucaya. Freeport, as well as Nassau, are frequented by many cruise liners. Freeport is a "planned" city of the Bahamas government and has only been around since the '50s. Skip from Jim, skip Freeport. No historic sites, fair beaches. Too "planned."

If you really want to get away from it all, the Exumas Islands are for you. You'll find no discos, no phones, few phones and fewer televisions.

Some final tips. Forget the taxis. Hop on one of the "money" buses. You can go anywhere on the island (except Paradise Island) for 50 cents. Take a "Bum" to Paradise Island for $1.50. You'll find them at the Cruise Dock. You may also wish to walk over the bridge. You'll get some great pictures from the bridge. Say hello to my friends John Constantakis and Kiriase at the Olympia Hotel. They've got the pizza on the island! Best island show is at Peanut Man's Drumbeat Club on West Bay Street. Don't forget converting your money. A U.S. dollar has the same value as a Bahama dollar and both are accepted everywhere. You must catch the Marching Flamigos at Ardastra Gardens!

Visit Florida this year. Give the Bahamas a try.

the first time. This year, Kevin was on his own.

"They were keying on him and he would go more outside, then inside and change it up game-to-game," Rogowski said of Frystak.

Kevin Frystak finished the season with 950 yards in 123 carries and had 11 touchdowns. Last year he had 1,125 yards and 15 touchdowns and as a sophomore he had 650 yards and nine scores.

Rogowski can remember when Kevin Frystak reported to his first Grant practices.

"As a freshman, he could squat 120 pounds and bench 250. Now he can squat 120 and bench 450. He would try and just outrun people. Now he uses all the techniques," Rogowski said.

Rogowski said several midwest schools are interested in Frystak's

Lot of passing

Genoa-Kingston's football team holds the record for the most yards gained in passing in a single game.

talents for their teams next year. Northern Illinois, Northwestern, Wisconsin, Illinois State and Western Illinois are all evaluating Frystak. And if things work out, some day Big Ten defensive coordinators may be praising Kevin Frystak's graduation.

Frystak is joined on the all-NWSC team by linemen John Mazur and Matt Knox, defensive end Bob Foster and linebacker Kurt Rous.

Lake Zurich, the only area team to make the playoffs, had five players on the team. Quarterback-defensive back Todd Kuklinski led the way. Fellow two-way player Martin Milner made it as a halfback and defensive back. Other Bears represented include linebacker John Koester and center-linebacker Dave Pijut.

Round Lake, despite finishing with a 3-6 record, can boast five all-league players. Quarterback-linebacker Todd Collis, guard-linebacker Jeff Shook, junior fullback-linebacker Aaron Meecke and junior runningback Laphanso Woods all made the team.

Johnsburg placed three players on the squad - senior defensive back Tom Cooley, senior guard Guy Steadman and junior center Dennis Linn.

Grayslake, which was 3-6 on the year and Wauconda, which was 1-8, both had two representatives. Runningback Jason Samuelson and linebacker Jeff Bonfanti both made the team. Wauconda representatives were fullback Matt Smyth and defensive tackle Keith Zersen.

While Kevin Frystak received the league's top honor, quarterback Jim Hartlieb, who led Marian Central to the NWSC title, was named the second MVP.

The Hurricanes, who won their first two playoff games, also had senior fullback-linebacker Tony Lawrence, senior wide receiver-linebacker Pete Huinker, offensive guard Pete Havlis and senior wide receiver Greg Penza named to the squad.

Marengo had the most players on the team as six Indians made the elite squad. Senior tight end Brian McCartney led the way. Linemen Jay Pace, Mark Andrews and Brian Hagen were listed.

Why pay to heat this much space,

when you're only using this much?

Fact is, by using an electric space heater and turning down the thermostat you can save up to 18 percent on your fuel bill this winter.

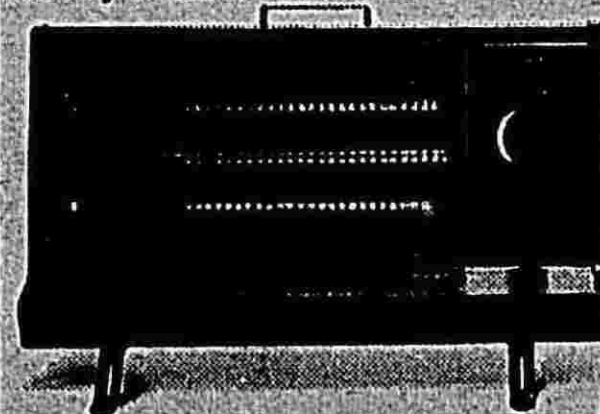

Because a space heater can keep you nice and snug at 70° while you keep the rest of the house at an economical 60°.

It's that 10° that makes the difference. You get the heat you need where you want it, in the rooms you're spending time in. That means you conserve everywhere else.

The savings more than offset the cost of the heater.

Which doesn't even begin to take into account what you'll save the next year. And the next year. And the year after.

So why pay to heat your furniture? Unless of course, you have money to burn.
